COLLEGE PLAYERS
TO PRESENT "CLARENCE"

The meeting of the dramatic club on Wednesday, February 20, filled all the members with a feeling of anticipation.

After business meeting, at which Sue Smythe presided, Miss Allen outlined the plans for the forthcoming production, "Clarence." "Clarence" promises to be one of the best productions ever done by college players. The title role is filled by Jack Snyder, supported by Jack Wilcox as Mr. Wheeler, Sue Smythe as Violet Pinney and other fine actors and actresses.

The play "Clarence", written by Booth Tarkington, is one of the most amusing and attractive of his works. Although it was written following the last war it still retains that spark of entertainment necessary to make it a hit. The complications of a returning serviceman and his connection with the flighty family of a harassed business man make up the plot.

Every member of the dramatic club and every student of the college will be eager to do all they can to make this venture a success. By offering your services and by attending one and all, we can boost the name and fame of OUR College Players.

WEED TO REPRESENT
M. S. T. C. AT EASTERN STATES CONFERENCE

The annual spring conference of the Eastern States Association of Professional Schools for Teachers will be held March 14th and 15th at the Hotel Commodore, New York.

Charles Weed has been chosen by the Student Council to attend this meeting along with the president-elect of the 1946-47 Student Council and president-elect of Women's Dormitory Council. Miss Wasley will accompany them. They will leave at noon March 13th and return on the 16th.

The students will devote one-half day of the conference to discussion of student problems and a like period to a study of the teacher's role in social understanding. On Thursday, March 14th, from 2 to 5:30 p. m., four panels will cover the following aspects of student life: Problems of Student Government, Curricular Needs and Interests of Students, Student Publications, and Extra-curricular Activities. Charles Weed will be chairman of the last panel.

Friday, March 15th, from 9 to 11:30 a. m. panel discussion will be conducted with faculty members acting as moderators and students participating. Friday noon all faculty and students will meet for general luncheon.

LAMBDA MU SORORITY
INITIATES NEW MEMBERS

The Lambda Mu Music Sorority initiated Leatrice Cunningham, a sophomore in the music department, into the sorority Saturday, February 23. The formal initiation ceremony took place in the sorority rooms of North Hall and a banquet followed at the Penn Wells Hotel in Wellsboro.

Present faculty and student members of the sorority and a few alumni members attended the initiation and banquet.

FLASHLIGHT BEGINS
TWENTY-FIRST YEAR

The Flashlight celebrated its twentieth year of publication February 6, 1946, for the first issue appeared on February 6, 1926. Many changes have taken place since that first issue appeared, but fundamentally the paper has remained the same. It is still the paper "of the students, by the students, and for the students."

The Flashlight, with this issue, has attempted to put out a paper that might show the progress of M.S.T.C. through the years, not just since the Flashlight came into being, but since the college itself began. We have searched for pictures that would be interesting to see as well as to keep. We hope this will be an issue which you will keep as a remembrance of M.S.T.C.

INTERCOLLEGIATE SPORTS
AGAIN ON COLLEGE PROGRAM

Basketball has set the pace at M. S. T. C., and once more intercollegiate sports have secured a footing on the college program of activities. Despite the fact that the basketball season had a late start, the results thus far have been satisfactory and it seems that college spirit has been dramatized in a truer form. Already plans are being made for a football team next fall and several games have been scheduled. Baseball will probably be resumed and certainly the basketball season next year as well as the football season will be one to look forward to.

In view of this welcomed rebirth of sports, it seems fitting at this particular time to give credit and express our gratitude to the people of the college who were responsible directly or indirectly for the restoration of an athletic program at M. S. T. C.

M.S.T.C. SPONSORS FIRST
POST-WAR DANCE APRIL 6TH

April 6, at 8 P. M., the Student Council will sponsor our first "real" post-war formal dance in the Student Center. Charlie Masters' orchestra will furnish the music.

Instead of having our first all formal dance sponsored by any of the four classes, the Student Council decided to take the big responsibility to save any dire feelings which might arise. Each class, each club, and each organization, no matter how small, will be represented and will have a part in making this dance a real success.

The Senior Class will be responsible for printing and selling the programs. The Juniors will handle the publicity. The Sophomores will make sure that everyone has enough to eat, while the Frosh will make the Student Center very decorative.

The chairmen of the following committees are:

Programs, Mary Jane Peters.
Publicity, Janet Crist.
Refreshments, Ruth Mase.
Decorations, Helen Hissam.

Admission to the dance is $3.00 per couple, and the funds gained from this will be given to the Student Government Association.

This affair is greatly anticipated by each and every student and through the eagerness of all, the dance will be a great success.

A.A.C.E. MEETING

In our January meeting, a group of our girls presented an interesting program giving information about the Compulsory Training Bill. After the program the whole group entered into the discussion of the bill. Even though we didn't reach a sound decision, we certainly had an interesting time exchanging ideas and we're sure that all of us learned something from the discussion that we didn't know or understand heretofore.

There were quite a few comments pertaining to the possibility of having more programs like this one.

Washesleski, Lester, Herzog Hold
Other Posts.

At the recent election for Student Council officers Charles Weed was chosen President. Charles is a Junior in the Secondary Department and has had much experience in his first three years with the operation of the Student Council. He was President of his Sophomore Class and Treasurer of the Council this year. He was one of the representatives at Cheney S. T. this last fall for the Student Councils in the different State Teachers College. Without a doubt, the student body has chosen, in Charles, a person very capable of leading them.

Victoria Washesleski was elected Vice-President for the coming year. Vicky, too, has had her share of experience in working with the Council since she served as Secretary this year.

Wellington Lester, a present Freshman, was chosen as Secretary for the 1946-47 Council. Wellington has proved himself capable of leadership, for he led his freshman class as their President.

Anne Herzog, a Sophomore, was chosen Treasurer of the Council. This will be Anne's first year on the Council, but we know she will fill her post well.

THIRD IN SERIES OF ARTISTS
COURSES HELD MARCH 5TH

The third in the series of artist courses was held March 5th in Straughn Hall. Teresita and Emilio Osta, exponents of Latin American and Spanish dances and musics presented a very interesting and entertaining program.

The young American pianist and his dancing sister have been making a unique personal contribution to bridging the Americas on concert stage and screen. Their mastery of Hispanic folklore and folk dancing has won them acclaim from Canada to the Argentine.

Osta plays with the passionate love of a Latin. The pulsating rhythm of the Spanish speaking countries as well as their tender folk tunes are presented with "the thin white flame of genius" by this master of the keys, who is credited with having the largest repertoire of authentic Spanish music of any young pianist now before the public. This vast store of musical lore was acquired by visiting the country, living with the people, eating their food and studying their music first hand. When Teresita became interested in Mexican dances, she used the same method of study—she lived with the Indians, went to their festivals and learned the old, old dances that date back to Aztec rule, before the coming of the Spaniards. Teresita shows us the beautiful ritual dances of the Inca Indians.

The feeling of having been on a journey to those colorful lands will stay with you long after the medley of music and dance the Ostras offer is over!

SORRY!

The Flashlight was scheduled to appear on February 28th, but due to a breakdown in the Advertiser's printing press we were unable to get it printed at that time. Since this was no one's fault, the Flashlight Staff hopes you, its readers, will excuse the delay.

FOREWORD

(From the First Flashlight)

Believing that the activities of any school should embrace a publication, the Emersonian Literary Society, with the willing cooperation of the other organizations, offers "THE FLASHLIGHT" for your approval, hoping that it will fulfill in a modest way this long felt need. We, the students of M.S.N.S., have every reason to feel ashamed when we contemplate the student publications of other schools, realizing that our institution with all its talents and resources can offer nothing of the kind.

To remedy the situation this paper has been attempted.

If you find these pages dry and uninteresting; if you are inclined to sneer at its smallness or if the jokes seem crude and out-of-date, just stop and consider the time and effort required, because of our inexperience, in the compiling of these lines.

Bear with us for who knows but that from these simple beginnings there may spring a paper worthy of ours or any institution. We sincerely hope that our efforts will not die, but live to inspire our successors with the desire for a better and bigger publication in the coming year.

EDITORS.

OUR FLASHLIGHT

This month marks our twentieth year of successful publication. During these twenty years the Flashlight has been true to its name—it has indeed "flashed a light" upon all phases of student life.

It has grown in content, structure and student acceptance through the years. The first issue appearing on February 6, 1926, was 11 inches long and 8 inches wide with 3 columns. It has gradually grown in size, increasing in the number of columns as well as over-all size, until today it measures 18 inches by 12 inches with 5 columns.

But growth has not been in size alone. With the cooperation of all members of the staff, the Flashlight has made progressive strides toward a bigger and better paper.

The policy of the college newspaper has changed, too. Originally, it had an Editor-in-chief, but in 1943 the paper adopted the plan of Co-Editors, who serve together, with the under Co-Editor automatically becoming Senior Co-Editor the following year.

Throughout the years, the editors and their co-workers have tried to produce a paper which would interpret the meaning of college life, constructively call attention to any worthy accomplishments, and reflect purposes and ideals of the student body. The Flashlight has been aided by being members of two Press Associations. It now belongs to the Pennsylvania Schools Press Association and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, a national organization, conducted in the interest of school journalism and school publications. All member publications are inspected and evaluated by these two associations. Each year the Flashlight and M.S.T.C. send delegates to at least one of these conventions. During the years the Flashlight has won many honors at these conventions.

The progressive stride the paper has taken through the years is certainly proof of cooperation and student acceptance and approval, it is inevitable that the Flashlight will be a "Brighter and Better" Flashlight than ever before.

MANSFIELD DEFEATS

DICKINSON

(From the first Flashlight)
Dickinson came to Mansfield with a husky looking squad and with the intentions of bringing home the bacon.

The game was fast from start to finish. Our boys showed themselves to be superior in every way, but the struggle was so hotly contested as to keep the audience continually on their feet.

Erace and Lloyd starred for the Normal. At the end of first half Brace had bagged three field goals and Lloyd two.

Allis, Kellerman and Kelly did their stuff at guarding and did much to contribute to our victory.

In the second half Dickinson did their best to hold the varsity, but to no avail. When the final whistle blew the score stood 17-12 in our favor.

(Editor's Note: We did it again.)

(From the first Flashlight)

First Junior High Boy: "Aw shut up!"

Second Junior High Boy: "You're the biggest boob in the school."

John Hendershot (angrily): "Boys, don't forget that I am here."

TO YOU, O PEDAGOGUES!

(From the first Flashlight)

Fellow and sister inmates of the Normal:

The time has approached when you should be reminded of one thing. To buy or not to buy, that is the question. Whether 'tis more profitable to spend your after school life in dismal oblivion of these days or to order a Carontawan and end such thoughts. When the roll is called on Monday, will you be there? It is not a question of dollars and cents, but rather a question of sense and promptness. Why not be a proud possessor of a 1926 Carontawan? A reflection of the past will be an inspiration for the future. Awake ye Normalites! Come to! Subscribe for a Carontawan! No better investment can be made, for as the years roll by the value of this book increases. Hand your cards, with the stipulated amount, to the manager in the main office.

—Editor of Carontawan.

FOURTH YEAR NOTES

(From the First Flashlight)

The Senior girls began their practice teaching out in the field for period of six weeks. Miss Julia Rogers is assigned to Picture Rocks, Miss Florence Lord to New Albany, and Miss Irene Lord to Trucksville. This is a notable event in the history of the department since it is the first practice teaching performed outside the town schools.

(From the First Flashlight)

HOMEMAKING NEWS

Have you heard the whispering and murmurings of the special event sponsored by the Omicron Gamma Pi in March? This will involve the effort and responsibility of each member of the organization. In keeping with the postwar forward trend and expansion we hear that plans are being made for college and city-wide participation. This event is rather a deep blue mystery, but one thing is known, that it is going to be in the form of a hobby show. Watch the Omicrons—they have something!

Miss Dorothy Bunting, vice-president of Omicron Gamma Pi, was a delegate to the workshop at Cornell University over the week-end of January 25th to 27th. Many different colleges from several states were represented at this workshop in which ways of bettering Homes Economic Associations were discussed. Miss Bunting shared her many valuable experiences at the Workshop with the Omicron members in a brief talk at the Omicron meeting February 21st.

The foods laboratory is quite a jumbled mess since the new Frosh have entered to take over the duties. Where is this pan placed? Miss Buckingham, my cereal isn't the right consistency, why didn't my popovers "pop"? Cheer up, Frosh, you'll be splendid cooks some day just like the junior girls who are serving such tantalizing food to those hungry children at Junior High. Those very efficient and model cooks are Elizabeth Schmidt, Mildred Hart, Betty Hughes, Anna Marion Cherrington, Pauline Schanbacher, Dora May Hammond, Mary Dorrance and Minnie Bender.

After five short weeks we are seeing the "merry school marms", the seniors at M. S. T. C., buzzing away as they have for the past four years. Tales of school teaching perience will be floating through North Hall for several weeks. The Seniors who have been teaching for the past six weeks are:

Mildred Warner, Camptown
Eileen Leonard, New Albany
Carol McClintock, Towanda
Helen Buckingham, Jersey Shore
Marjorie Eick, Ralston
Jane Owens, Liberty
Arlene Rothermel, Watsontown
Anne Drumm, Galeton
Janice Madigan, Montrose
Virginia Singley, Blossburg
Eleanor Missimer, Charleston
Emilie Kerlin, Mill City
Betty Lord, Tunkhannock
Virginia Kast, Elkland

Mollahan: "This cold weather chills me to the bone."

Mulford: "You should wear a hat."

MY NAME IS ARAM

By William Saroyan

My name is Aram. I live in California in 1915. I am a boy: I have a boy's way and live the life of a boy. My parents and relatives are Armenians and live a life not ordinary in America.

My whole name is Aram Garoghlanian. Garoghlanian means of the "dark or black sons." Therefore, my name means Aram "of the dark or black sons." I like my name and I am proud of it. I have many relatives. Some have the name Garoghlanian. May more of them have different names, but names just as strange as mine. We are a large tribe and have much fun, so names are not important.

The whole family thought that sad uncle Jorgi was a fool. Uncle Jorgi did not like to work. He liked to sit all day under a tree and play the zither and sing. Uncle Jorgi and I were sent to Harford at harvest time to work and make money. I was to cook rice that was too salty and to keep the house clean. Uncle Jorgi was to work. When we came to Harford the harvest season was finished. We did not mind. Uncle Jorgi sat under a tree and played the zither. I cleaned the house and cooked rice that was too salty.

My Uncle Melik was a bad farmer. He planted one hundred pomangranate trees in the desert. They wouldn't grow. My Uncle Melik was sad when the pomangranates would not grow in the desert.

My Cousin Arak wrote poems about our teacher on the blackboard. I got blamed for them. Our teacher, Miss Daffney, would argue with me about it, then send me to the principal, Mr. Derringer. Mr. Derringer was not a very good arguer, so he strapped me. Mr. Derringer liked Miss Daffney, so when he strapped me he told me to yell very loud so Miss Daffney would think I was really hurt. Miss Daffney caught me howling very loud one day when Mr. Derringer wasn't even strapping me. She got mad at Mr. Derringer. Then Mr. Derringer strapped me harder.

My name is Aram. I am a strange scamp. Perhaps you will want to know me better.

NOISE FOR THE BOYS

At a recent Student Council meeting a group of 28 girls "tried out" to act as cheerleaders for the remainder of the year. Five girls were chosen from the group. Three are Freshmen and two are Juniors. They are Eleanor Jones, Pauline Schanbacher, Lois Boardman, Lucille Lehner and Juliana Hannold. They have been "doing their stuff" at the basketball games and with the grand cooperation of the student body they are making the games more exciting. The cheerleaders' uniforms are, of course, colors of the school: red jerkins, white blouses, and black skirts.

If anybody has a cheer (or cheers) that he would like to have used at the games, he can send them, or give them in person to Eleanor Jones. The girls also would like suggestions, as to actions of cheers—help is always appreciated and at the games let's see YOU and YOU down at the gym in your most cheering mood ready to cheer the fellows on to VICTORY! Just think what a good cheering section we could have if everyone cheered his loudest!

P.S.—Don't forget the pep-meetings, either. The cheer-leaders will feel much better if everyone cooperates in making "lots of noise for the boys!"

MOVIES FOR MARCH

The following movies have been chosen to be shown in Straughn Hall for the month of March:

March 1—"San Diego, I Love You."

March 8—"Paris Underground."

March 15—"Together Again."

March 22—"Greenwich Village."

March 29—"Hollywood Canteen."

THE HONOR ROLL OF WORLD WAR II

This now hangs in the foyer of Straughn Hall. It was purchased through the efforts of the Men's Service Committee, which has operated during the war.

NEWS FROM THE BOYS

From Norman E. Waltman

I am a former student of the college, or rather I should say that I am an alumnus of our fair college. I wish to thank the college or whoever is responsible for sending me the Flashlight and the nice Christmas greetings. I received the October 17th and November 21st issues. They were sent to my address in New Caledonia, but I am now in the New Hebrides on the Island of Esprit Santo.

In the Nov. 21 issue, from the Chit-Chat I quote this, "From Dr. Stout: 'Oceania is that continent which contains no land.' I would like to comment, if Oceania is that continent that contains no land, then I have been doing a lot of swimming the past couple years. I would like to amend his definition thusly: Oceania is that continent which contains no land to speak of. Therefore, I will not speak of it.

From what I gather from comments in the Flashlight, the number of male students are very few. May I say for the boys out here, girls, if there is even one man on the campus you are 100% better off than we are here for we have absolutely no women in our coconut plantation. Only pin-ups, and not Van Johnson either.

Although the students are unfamiliar to me, the teachers' names are remembered and I enjoyed the papers very much. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Norman E. Waltman, Lt.

From Bob Stowe

Dear Flashlight,

This is just a note to tell you how much the paper means to me. Don't stop sending it. Many of the names and faces are strange, but it's still the same old school and I like to know "How goz it" in Mansfield.

We fly out here on regular runs from California and back, stopping at Honolulu, Majoro, Saipan, and Manila. The trip takes 15 days out and back since we spend a day or so at each stop.

On the way out I met the chaplain, from Hughesville, Pa., who intended to preside at the wedding of Regina Fought Wilson. Feels good to see people who even have heard of M. S. T. C., let alone those who actually know where and what it is.

The only way I can keep in touch with "Alma Mammy" is through the Flashlight, so keep them coming to Alameda. I'll get them and I'll surely appreciate them.

Very Sincerely,
—BOB STOWE.

Mr. Bertin was busily engaged with a spade in the mud beside his car, when a stranger hailed him. "Stuck in the mud?" he asked. Mr. Bertin (cheerfully): "Oh no! My engine died here and I'm digging a grave for it."

CHIT-CHAT

Don't Stop Me—

Two ghosts were playing poker when a knock came at the door. "Who is it?" they asked. "Rigor mortis, may I set in?"

Two men were going through a house that was said to be haunted, when to their surprise they heard voices saying: "Go away! Leave us alone! Go away!" The men turned to each other nervously. "How is it that we can hear them, but can't see them." Because," said the moaning voice of the ghosts, "our sheets haven't come back from the laundry."

From the Classroom—

Mr. Beyer: "This afternoon we will take Mr. Frog apart and see what makes him croak. I have a frog in my pocket to be used as a specimen."

He reached into his pocket and drew out a paper bag which he emptied on the table, but out rolled a badly squashed ham sandwich.

Mr. Beyer (mopping his brow): "My goodness," I distinctly remember eating my lunch.

"It's the little things in life that tell," said the co-ed as she yanked her kid brother from under the sofa.

Church: "Say, whatever became of those old-fashioned girls who fainted when a boy kissed them?"

Eleanor: "Whatever became of the old-fashioned boys who made them faint?"

"FADS AND FASHIONS"

When Spring comes . . . will you be far behind? Or are you starting now to smooth out the rough spots. Take a look at your clothes . . . your black velveteen did its duty this winter, but it's time you packed it away, all carefully cleaned and mended. Lay away your skating things with loving care, and they'll be as pretty next year as they were this.

Off with the old . . . that's fine. Now what's "new" that comes on? How are you going to look your prettiest, this spring? For it's going to be a pretty season . . . full of melt-in-your-mouth pastels, petite-posy hats (even if you're again 'em, try to resist the charm of the new flower circlets), lots of feminine touches of white-on-dark.

Just look at McCall 6397 . . . you will see what the word "pretty" means. And we'll bet it won't take a second glance to send you stepping right down to the nearest pattern department. Find some lighter-than-navy (lush new color you'll be seeing lots of) linen-like spun rayon. It'll give you just the right crisp look, and do justice to the full-from-the-hips skirt. No drooping this year, you know . . . everything has a fresh-off-the-ironing-board chic.

The wide eyelet bands deserve the loveliest embroidery your town holds . . . look how those bands underscore the softly rounded shoulder, the full-as-an-infanta's skirt. The touch is just feminine enough. None of the fluffs, and frills and fuss that we are grateful to have left in the far-away past; no more of the Sloppy Joe look of not so many years ago.

That's the way you'll like to look when you're dating . . . but what of that best-beloved teen-age fashion, the suit? Have you seen the wonderful new basque silhouette? Its high fashion for everyone this year . . . but it's a teen-ager at heart, and it's not to early even now to start work on one for Easter.

We've seen a rib-hugging, free-skirted lovely . . . and you'll want to make it your own. Sew it in one of the new spun-nylon and Aralac lightweight suitings. There's a soft camouflage Gray we've sent our spies out to uncover for us. And you'll be happily amazed at how easy it is to sew with Aralac. The unpressed pleats that make a skirt so full are glorious in this supple fabric. Just remember to sponge Aralac before you cut it.

And when you're planning to sew a new blouse, why not buy an extra half yard for matching gloves? You will find them easy enough to sew if you're careful. They're the making of your last year's suit.

Now take a look at yourself. Have heavy winter clothes been hiding bulges you've let creep up on you? There isn't a spring thing we've seen that will put up with that. Look at your hair . . . have winter's icy winds taken the spring out of those curls? And what ravages have those self-same winds done to your skin? Start cleaning house now, chillun . . . be ready for the coming of Spring.

—McCall School Service.

"SWING YER' PARTNERS"

The Sophomore Class will sponsor a Square Dance, March 23, from 8 P. M. to 11 P. M. for the benefit of the Red Cross. There will be admission and refreshments will be sold. The music will be furnished by the Esquirettes, who will also furnish their own "caller".

WOMEN DAY STUDENTS' LUNCHEON

The Women Day Students started the second semester off with a Valentine Luncheon at noon on Wednesday, February 13th, in the "Y" rooms. At the door the program committee, Eleanor Nash, chairman, Myra Harrington, and Arlene Whitney, distributed little red hearts with the name of one person of famous love couples (i.e. Romeo and Juliet). The object of the game was to find your partner and eat with her at the luncheon.

After the students were seated, the food committee, Helen Smith, chairman; Elizabeth Leach, Virginia Brueilly, and Shirley Hollenbeck, served a delicious lunch of Hungarian goulash, fruit salad, whole wheat rolls, cookies, ice-cream, tea with lemon slices.

The tables were trimmed with red and white hearts with cupid present. Doris Knowlton, chairman, Leda Rhodes, and Doris Hadley, were on the committee.

About forty attended the cupid party, because the advertising committee, Ruth Sheehan, chairma, Isabella Danielski, and Shirley Hollenbeck, did such good work to see that this "special event" was well publicized. With valentine favors and full stomachs, the students left the luncheon with memories of Valentine's Day. It is certain that they will all be present at the next meeting in March.

Music Education Club Banquet

The Music Education Club held their annual banquet at the Penn-Wells Hotel in Wellsboro March 7th. About sixty members of the club were present at the dinner and the dance following.

Phi Mu Alpha Reorganized

Phi Mu Alpha has reorganized and is again becoming an active fraternity on campus. The fraternity is taking in five new members. These are Jack Wilcox, James Ritter, Don Razey, Tom Foster, and Elwood Kinney. At the present the old members are enjoying putting the new members through a week of "hazing."

JAMES AND SCHMIDT ATTEND KAPPA DELTA PI CONFERENCE

Patricia James, president, and Elizabeth Schmidt are in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, representing Mansfield Beta Rho Chapter of the National Convocation of Kappa Delta Pi. This Conference generally meets every two years, but this is the first conference since the war began.

James and Schmidt left March 9 and will return on the 17th. The conference is scheduled from March 11th through the 13th at the Schroeder Hotel, where the girls will also stay. They will discuss problems of individual chapters and the function of the society as a whole. Dr. Claude Judd will be the main speaker at the formal banquet to be held the evening of March 12th. Dr. William Bagley, noted educator and the laureate councillor of Kappa Delta Pi, will also be present.

The girls are stopping off in Chicago, Illinois for a few days to do some sight-seeing. While in Chicago they will stay at the Palmer House.

ALLEMAND LEFT!

Everyone wished to be a member of the Secondary Club on the night of January 31, 1946. Why? Because the club had a square dance complete with music, noise, and boys. To the calls of "Swing Your Partner" and "Dosey Do," the secondary students forgot their troubles for one happy hour.

All this excitement, however, did not detract from interest in the plans for the rest of the semester. The February and March meetings promise to be unusually worthwhile; for in February there will be a discussion of compulsory military training and the March meeting will take up methods of army instruction versus college methods. Surely, every intelligent person wishes to know as much as he can about compulsory military training; so come to the Secondary meeting, and perhaps you'll get a new slant on it. And if you are dissatisfied with methods of college instruction, the army method should give you plenty of new ideas. In April, we shall have the blissful opportunity to sit back and observe the instructional staff who will favor us with a program. Will it be serious, dramatic, or, funny? No one knows. Aren't you curious already?

"PAST PERFECT"

Omicron Gamma Pi is sponsoring "Past Perfect" on Saturday afternoon, March 16, 1946 in the Arts Building from 2:00 to 5:00 p. m. Everyone from the town and college is cordially invited to come and contribute.

"Past Perfect" is a show of antiques, heirlooms and hobbies. The public is invited to contribute—a few suggestions are: old fashioned magazines, buttons, costumes, dolls, furniture, china, slippers, prints, brass, old silver, jewelry, bedspreads, quilts, and any other "old things". We are planning a Victorian Parlor and also bedroom setting. One of the high spots will be an exhibit of photographs of years ago of Mansfield citizens. If any of you have photographs and would like them to be shown, you can leave them with Mrs. Finesilver and we will get them there. They will all be handled carefully—for convenience, it might be best to paste your name and address on the back. Members of the club will wear dresses of historic costume. Come and see these models.

We are asking Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gillette, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Coles, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. John Marvin, Mr. Jimmy Preston, Mrs. Finesilver, Mr. and Mrs. Garrison, the Misses Farrer, Buckingham, Allen, Randall, Alice Butts, Mr. and Mrs. Manford Lloyd, Mrs. Yolande Judge, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Coles, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Russell and Mr. Albert Bates to be patrons—interested citizens who will display any of the articles named and induce other citizens of Mansfield to participate actively.

Anyone can enter any items of collector's interest—contact Misses Janice Madigan and Pauline Schanbacher, Mrs. Curtis Owens, college, or Mr. Harold Besanceney.

od should give you plenty of new ideas. In April, we shall have the blissful opportunity to sit back and observe the instructional staff who will favor us with a program. Will it be serious, dramatic, or, funny? No one knows. Aren't you curious already?

MANSFIELD VICTORS OVER JUNIOR DICKINSON

In the return game with Junior Dickinson Saturday night, March 9, Mansfield State came out ahead to win 38 to 33. M.S.T.C. had played Junior Dickinson in Williamsport a week before and lost by the score of 35 to 32. For the first quarter Mansfield led all the way. Getting off to a slow start, the college quintet proved themselves a better team by holding a five point margin in the last half of the game.

Bill Johnson, netting 13 points, was high man for the college, followed by Joe Cunningham with eight points. The Dickinson quintet was paced by Don Crossley and G. Abrunzo, each with 12 points.

Y.) . . . likes murder pictures, billiards, scalloped ham and potatoes, and spaghetti . . . makes music his work and his hobby . . . dislikes so-called "Hep people" who aren't "hep" at all or the "downbeat musician", people who flatter you so you must compliment them in return, and people who store . . . Bucky is a union man, but thinks labor unions have overstepped their bounds . . . believes Russia is the nation to be feared in the future, and that the atomic bomb should be kept in the hands of the United States, Canada, and England . . . all of you know Bucky, for he's the fellow that makes that clarinet talk.

M. S. T. C. BOWS TO JUNIOR-DICKINSON

In a tight scoring, hard fought basketball contest played at Williamsport on Saturday night, March 2, the Junior-Dickinson Seminary basketball team eased out the Mansfield Teachers quintet by the close score of 35-32. The teams were so evenly matched that the margin of difference in the score did not at any time exceed three points. At half-time Mansfield had netted 15 points to Junior-Dickinson's 12. The teams came back the second half, each trying vainly to gain a lead, but could not. In the final period, Mansfield was ahead, 32-31. With but two minutes left to play, three Seminary players converted on four free throws, jumping ahead to a three point lead. Mansfield failed to overcome this lead in the remaining minutes of play and suffered defeat.

"Little Joe" Cunningham with 10 points was high at the net for the Teachers, followed by "Pat" Cunningham with 7 and "Dick" Dorney with 6.

In the preliminary contest, the Dickinson Jayvees defeated the Mansfield Jayvees, 17-15.

ELEMENTARY NEWS

During the month of January the Campus schools put on the Clothing Drive as requested by the local committee. We had approximately one truck load of clothing of which some was practically as good as new. We also carried out the program of the March of Dimes, having a box in each room. The total amount contributed was $52.00. Stamps and bonds to the amount of $210.55 were bought by the children.

The Superintendent of Schools of Wellsville, New York, called in to ask for teachers for next year. He was very enthusiastic about the work of our graduates. Miss Bernice Roupp and Miss Rachel Mudge are teaching in Wellsville.

The dental nurses of the county are working in the elementary school and expect to go over the teeth of all the children in the kindergarten and the first six grades. This work is financed by the sale of the tuberculosis seals and bonds.

The junior high school has the largest number of student teachers and participators in some time. Forty-nine people are now doing their work of the junior high school.

Library books to the amount of $350.00 are being placed on the shelves of the library in the two schools. The librarian, Mrs. Palmer, had an assembly program in the junior high school introducing these new books to the children.

The junior high school basketball team has won games from Charleston and Tioga, and lost one game to Wellsboro.

M.S.T.C. BASKETEERS
VICTORIOUS OVER ITHACA

Exhibiting fine basketball and teamwork, the hard fighting basketball team of M.S.T.C. upset a highly rated and well trained quintet from Ithaca College on the home court, Saturday night, February 23, by the close score of 35 to 33.

This was the Red and Black's first college victory and third victory of the season, the other two victories being over visiting town teams.

Paced by two veterans and former Mansfield varsity men, "Pat" Cunningham and "Dick" Dorney, along with the fine work of "Earl" Wilson, "Joe" Cunningham, and "Chuck" Weed, the college cagers took an early lead and maintained it throughout the game.

During the latter part of the fourth quarter, three of Mansfield's men "fouled out" and the fine work of "Ed" Degville, "Joe" Markle, and "Joe" Mollahan as replacements held the hard fighting Ithaca team and kept them from scoring.

"BETWEEN THE HOOPS"

To date little has been said about the college basketball team. Everyone has witnessed its rebirth, have seen the boys in action and have expressed their opinions, but few conclusions have been drawn. In a constructive way a few observations might be brought to the surface.

Since the time of the first game, the team has greatly improved, but there is still the need of more improvement. The fact that the team has only been organized since the Christmas vacation partly accounts for the reason that few games have been won. The necessary material for a good team is present, but it must be understood that it takes time, patience and practice to mold a group of individual players into a strong defensive and offensive team. There must be organization and cooperation. A good team calls for a five-man combination working together as a unit and exhibiting efficiency in teamwork. This is what the boys are striving for. They are conscious of their mistakes and want to correct them. Their faithful ways of sticking to the game, even though the glory of victory has come to them but twice, is to be greatly admired.

Excluding the home game with St. Bonaventure, every game played by the team has been well worth seeing. The boys have played good, clean, hard basketball and have been giving their opponents a tough time.

In spite of their defeats, the team did not give up, although after the St. Bonaventure game many of the boys were ready to "turn in their suits." Instead they faced the situation with determination to stick to the game. As a result of their determination on Monday night, February 18, Ithaca College met a very strong and hard-to-beat Mansfield team. The half time count was 23 to 20 for Ithaca. In the second half Ithaca secured a greater margin and came out on top, but the Mansfield boys played a fine type of game, battling their opponents till the last whistle sounded, and despite their defeat came away determined to do better the next time.

With this determination and faith, the M.S.T.C. team will sooner or later chalk up some victories. They are the "under dogs" now, but it takes more true sportsmanship and courage to be an "under dog" and stick in the game than it does to be always on the winning side. Back the team—it needs your support and confidence.

COLLEGE PLAYERS TO PRESENT "CLARENCE"

Come One! Come All! The College Players under the direction of Miss Allen and the student direction of Eleanor Mertz, Jean Brunner, and Gene Maxwell, are giving their second production, "Clarence" by Booth Tarkington. It is a comedy of four acts which was first produced in 1919, but is easily adapted to modern times.

When? Friday, April 5th, at 8:15 P. M.

Where? Straughn Hall.

Who?

Clarence	Jack Snyder
Violet Pinney	Sue Smythe
Mrs. Wheeler	Gloria Razez
Mr. Wheeler	Jack Wilcox
Cora Wheeler	Patty Roche
Billy Wheeler	Dick Doughton
Mrs. Martin	Georgia Colwell
Della	Polly Levengood
Dinwiddie	Wellington Lester
Hubert Stem	Donald Ayres

Clarence, a young soldier, is taken into the Wheeler household. Although they know nothing about Clarence, they become very fond of him, and Cora, the young daughter of the family, falls in love with him. However, he falls in love with Violet Pinney and complications arise. Then, but any more would be telling!

How much? Since this play is not sponsored by the Student Government, all students will be admitted for 40c, and adults for 55c.

Let's make this another huge success as we did "Jane Eyre," the first production. "Clarence" will be expecting you!

RED CROSS DRIVE

The Class of 1948 made the Red Cross Drive for this year their project. The results were very successful. They obtained $44.50 from a Sing on March 19th. This money was obtained by choosing an artist and song that one wished.

Then on March 23 the Sophomore class sponsored a square dance which netted $40.50 toward the drive. This brought the total to $85.00. The Class of 1948 should be congratulated on their splendid work!

It is worthy to note here that the Esquirettes donated free their time or the dance. Dressed in their new outfits of red blazers and black skirts, they played for three hours. On behalf of the Student Body, the Flashlight takes pride in thanking you for this job done well, and for all the other time that you have spent for our entertainment.

ART CLUB BRIEFS

The annual convention of the Eastern Arts Association will be held in New York at the Pennsylvania Hotel, April 24-27. The Art Club will be represented by the President, Pauline Schanbacher, last year's President, Jane Pawling Owens, Janice Madigan, Janice Ford, Frances Marcucci, and the Club Adviser, Miss Murphy. The group plans on seeing two plays: The Voice of the Turtle, and Carousel, visiting Radio City, and attending several broadcasts.

Following the Art Club meeting held in the "Y" rooms March 28, the members worked on bracelets. The bracelets are silver bands with the monogram of the Art Club etched on them.

At the next meeting the Seniors will be honored.

The annual May Day Festivities will be held at 2:00 p. m. in Straughn Hall on May 4. It will consist of the processional and the crowning of the May Queen (whose identity will be kept a secret until she glides down the aisle), after which the Sophomore Music Students will present a program directed by Miss Brookes. Our gay, little Freshmen will then present the traditional May Pole Dance under the able direction of Miss Morris.

The following Freshmen girls have been chosen to participate in the May Day Dance: Barbara Dimcn, Juliana Hannold, June Geiss, Shirley McConnell, Flo Gazdick, Isabel Diez, Jean Dragwa, Lucile Lehner, Jean Ford, Jane Carr, Eleanor Bitner, and Lois Boardman.

This will be followed by the regional of the Queen and her court.

At 6:00 p. m. there will be a dinner, held in honor of the Queen and her court in the dining room. They will be guests of President and Mrs. Morgan and Miss Wasley.

At 7:30 p. m. a dance will be held in the Student Center in honor of the Court, with music provided by the "Esquirettes" under Mr. Ledwith's supervision.

May Day is the Happy Day of Spring when everyone on campus meets the girls who most closely fit these qualifications: Personality, attractiveness, extra curricular activities and academic rating. The Queen and her court is an excellent example of M.S.T.C.'s most outstanding women.

In alphabetical order, we now present the names of the girls who have been chosen to compose the May Court for the year 1945-46.

Georgia Colwell, a Secondary student from Susquehanna, Pa., is the President of "Y" this year, a member of the Secondary Club and Col-

REVIVALS

When the Student Body of M.S.T.C. registered for the second semester on that morning of January 21 not one realized the changes or you might say the revivals that would take place in the near future.

First of all, with the return of so many veterans to the campus, M.S.T.C. got that basketball team it had talked about and hoped for since September. All of the games weren't won. But winning the games wasn't all that counted. It was the joy of thronging to the gym to see our team play, or seeing cheerleaders wear Mansfield's colors, or hearing the band play Mansfield, Hail!—that's what really counted. The student body thanks the basketball team. They made this joy possible.

Dancing in the Student Center received a new impetus. Student Council was quick to realize this and planned dances for every Monday and Friday nights immediately after dinner. These are well attended and certainly enjoyed by all. It wasn't long before the cry went up for a formal dance. This will become a reality on April 6th. Then for the first time since the war, the Student Center will wear the gay decorations necessary for a formal. Students will don their festive clothes and thrill to the music of Charlie Masters. The all-college Spring Dance will long be remembered by all.

Two fraternities, Phi Sigma Pi and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, reorganized. All enjoyed watching the spectacle of their initiation. But it was more than just amusement for the Seniors. To them it was a reminder that "the good old days" were fast returning. For the members of the Senior Class are the only students who remember the activities of these fraternities in the past.

As the semester progressed, the time came to elect Student Council Officers for next year. Chuck Weed was elected President. For the past three years girls had held the coveted Council presidency. Gloria Rauch Harris, Jan Rathbun, and Marie Scudder showed that girls as well as fellows could handle this job, but good. Chuck has a fine record to live up to and the student body has confidence in his ability to lead them through a very successful year. On this same subject of elections, the Men's Dormitory Council and the Men's Day Student Club were reorganized. Chairs have been created on next year's Student Council for their presidents, Joe Markle and George Myfelt.

The semester is almost over now. The May Court has been elected, the Seniors have ordered their caps and gowns, all officers for next year have been elected, the campus is looking more like spring every day, and soon we go home for Easter vacation. So far it's been a great semester, marked with changes or "revivals". In the few weeks after vacation let's continue to revive the good old days.

"THE END IS NEAR"

The past few weeks the occasional days of balmy weather have given us high hopes and promises of Spring! At any time from now on we can expect heavy storms to fill the sky, but even so, they can't appear as anything but the final flourishes of a dying winter and as such become weaker and weaker. Shortly there will be no snow; only clear skies, warm sun, and a carpet of soft green grass for our "Lovers of Mansfield" to tread on... Sounds real poetical, doesn't it? Well, it is, in one sense of the word. One might even laugh at the picturesque words, but when that same person stops to think what the clear skies, warm sun, and new grass mean then he'll no doubt begin to ponder slightly on numerous topics! To sum it all up in a few words, it means "The End Is Near." The end of another school year in these fields of Asa Mann.

Perhaps a little reflection on the thought that the end is near is good for us. For the Freshmen, because it may impress them with the fact that there is but a short time left in which to establish the reputation so essential to smooth progress in the years to come; for the Sophomores because it is another reminder that the half-way mark is reached, but only the half-way mark; for the

HOMEMAKING NEWS

The "Past" was "Perfect". In case your mind is wondering, we mean the show "Past Perfect"; which was a display of hobbies, antiques and heirlooms. Say! Kids, didn't that alluring wedding gown give you ideas? How about that punchbowl, wouldn't that hold plenty of punches, fellows?

Since the Homemakers have such a wonderful past, here is something to look forward to in the future—two style shows. One will be given by the Simplicity Pattern Co., and the other by those whizzes of the sewing machine, Home Eccers in person.

May I carry your bag, Miss? We are only trying to help the Juniors move into the apartment. Maybe we can work for an invitation from: Minnie Bender, Anna Mary Cherrington, Mary Dorrance, Dora Mae Hammond, Mildred Hart, Betty Hughes, Pauline Schanbacher, and Elizabeth Schmidt.

Have you seen the Senior Home Ec. teachers in conference? Maybe they could give the Juniors some ideas! Just what was the pan of water doing on the floor, Dotty? ... That poor student's wet foot! Nice ways of initiating your new classes, Juniors!

Wish I were taking HomeManagement. Not every Sophomore class can have a dinner in the apartment. The menu sounded superb but we won't bother to stimulate your digestive juices.

My, My, all a Home Ec.er thinks of is food... but then can you blame them? Just what did your breakfast menu consist of Freshmen?

Have you noticed those atrocious black rings under the Seniors eyes? Maybe we can give you an explanation. First, they all want an Easter outfit, thus they burn the sun and midnight oil working on those masterpieces, called suits. Secondly, the "poor" Seniors are industriously sending applications in search of their future, to this, that and the other Superintendent.

Now we will call on the Easter Bunny to wish you a Happy Easter!

PHI SIGMA FRATERNITY

Phi Sigma Fraternity recently elected eight students into its newly reorganized club. Carl Payne is President of this fraternity and he, along with the other old members initiated the following into the organization:

Harold Besanceney
 William Flindt
 Wellington Lester
 Paul Mulford
 Niles Norman
 Cecil Simmons
 Robert Wagner
 Charles Weed

The new "initiates" recently had a banquet and dance at the Penn Wells Hotel in Wellsboro. Each member had and escort, and Miss Wasley, Mr. Bertin and Dr. and Mrs. Stout accompanied them. Mr. Bertin was guest speaker and Dr. Stout is the fraternity sponsor. This banquet concluded a week's initiation.

Y.M.C.A.

Have you been forgetting the "Y" meetings every Thursday evening? We wish you would visit us for programs that are varied and interesting.

We have activities other than weekly meetings. One of these was an enjoyable "pajama party" last week.

We'll be looking for you this Thursday!

Mr. Manser: "Now I put number seven on the board. What number immediately comes into your mind?"
 Ex-G. I.s (in unison) "Eleven."

Juniors because good standing at the end of their third year means good standing in the beginning of their fourth and final year; and for the Seniors because such reflection may inspire that courage to attack; that courage to show those who direct our education that as students they are capable of doing the work of competent teachers.

So let's harmonize our spirit with the spirit of Spring, of a newness of ideas. Soon Easter will be here with all its gay colors—the primary sign of the effect which Spring has on individuals. Let's not forget, though, that the "End Is Near". Think of that fresh mantle of green and the new hopes which Spring has inspired, and look to the END to crown the work.

—E. E. J.

MUSIC EDUCATORS TO PRESENT CHORAL VESPERS

April 7th, the Music Education Department will present Choral Vespers in Straughn Auditorium.

The Chorus will sing two pieces of Gregorian Chant:

I. Credo.
 II. Gloria in Excelsis.

The Virgin Martyrs... Samuel Barber
 The chorus then will sing the cantata, the Miserere, by Johann Adolfe Hasse, accompanied by the string ensemble:

I. God, Have Mercy—Chorus.
 II. I Have Sinned—Bettejo Goodall.
 III. For Behold Ye—Chorus.
 IV. Deliver Me—Chorus.
 V. For, O Lord—Shirley Dutcher
 VI. Do Good, Lord—Chorus.

This program will take the place of a speaker which all other vesper services have included.

GIRLS' SPORTS IN SHORTS

The basketball tournament has been completed. The elementary-secondary sophomores were the victors, with Marion Curtiss as captain, and B. Leach, A. Herzog, I. Hollenback, R. Carlson, D. Warner, M. Harrington, L. Knoller, L. Rhoades were on the team. "Congrats," kids! The Junior Home Eccers' team come in second. They lost one game all season. E. Schmidt captained the team. Nice going, Juniors! The swimming pool is open—so com'on up and take a dip! The gals picked out to save our lives are the lifeguards who were certified last summer and last fall. And an important, even for the Sr. lifeguards will be the National American Red Cross instructor who will be here the week of May 6. It will be a 15-hour course—3 hours a day for that week. Anyone who has the senior lifeguard certificate may take this course, and is encouraged to take advantage of this opportunity. One thing more about the pool—let's have cooperation with the lifeguards—we are cautioned against "horse-play."

The Badminton and Table Tennis tournaments are still being played off. The Volleyball tournament is being organized, and we may have a bowling tournament.

W.A.A. plans to have a breakfast hike the morning of April 27. Have a nice time, kids, and don't burn the bacon!

PHI MU REORGANIZES

With the return of 13 of its former members from the service, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia Fraternity has reorganized, under Mr. Jean Kohler, faculty adviser to the fraternity.

At its first meeting February 13, election of officers was held. Those elected are: President, Daniel Hookey; Vice President and Supreme Councilman, Charles Harris; Treasurer, Bob Miner; Secretary, Ben Husted.

Five new "brothers" have been initiated into the fraternity. They are: Don Razez, Ellwood Kinney, James Ritter, Jack Wilcox, and Thomas Foster. Initiation, "hell-week", and Arcade meetings brought us back to what campus life was "before the war".

Formal initiation and the Pledge Recital was held on Sunday, March 11, 3:30 p. m., in Straughn Hall. At 6:30 p. m. there was a banquet at the Penn Wells in Wellsboro, for all fraternity brothers and "pledges".

The "frat" room has recently been redecorated. The walls have been painted blue-green, the ceiling and wood work, cream. New mugs have been purchased and the radio-phonograph has been repaired.

Sinfonia looks forward to a very successful year.

LAMBDA MU GIRLS VISIT NEW YORK

Thursday afternoon, March 21, 1946, seven of the Lambda Mu Sorority girls and their chaperone, Miss Randall, left for a three-day trip to New York City. While they were there the girls stayed at the Piccadilly Hotel.

Friday morning they went sight seeing through the city, took in C.B.S. in the afternoon and that evening they went to the stage show, "The Voice of the Turtle."

Saturday morning the girls went shopping and that afternoon went to Radio City Music Hall. Saturday evening they went to the opera at the Metropolitan and saw the opera "Tannhauser."

Sunday the girls went to St. Thomas Church, and the Philharmonic Symphony Concert at Carnegie Hall where Arden Rubenstein, world famous pianist was soloist. In the latter part of the afternoon they attended the General Motors Symphony of the Air program at N.B.C., featuring the N.B.C. Symphony Orchestra under the distinguished direction of Arturo Toscanini. They left the city Sunday evening at 7 P. M.

Those that made the trip were: Miss Randall, Bettejo Goodall, Raymeta Hollenshead, Vivian Oakey, Regina Seeley, Patricia James, Mary Jane Peters and Elizabeth Wetmore.

SECONDARY NEWS

The Secondary Club held two extremely interesting meetings in March. On March 4 there was a heated debate on the subject of "Compulsory Military Training". After many practical suggestions, both for and against it. Mr. Bertin summed up the discussion. The clear presentation of unfamiliar and ignored facts clarified everyone's thinking.

On March 21 there was a discussion of "Army Methods of instruction versus College Methods. The consensus of opinion was that while army methods are superficially more efficient, college methods are better in the long run. The army trains people quickly to get immediate results. A college trains people, perhaps in a more blundering fashion, but with results which are life-long. One thing that colleges can learn from army methods is that the use of training aids and visual education is of prime importance.

The April meeting of Secondary Club took place on April 29 at which time the faculty had charge of the program.

"G. I. JAMES"

We have our G. I. Joes roaming all over the campus giving us good proof that we, as a college, are rapidly coming out of our "war fog" into a normal happy routine again. It sure is good to see them around, and while we're paying them praise, let's stop to consider a few newcomers who need a salute also! They're our "G. I. James", in other words, the wives of some of our returned veterans.

They have all shown a great interest in the college, and it is nice to see the way in which the college students have taken these girls into our "family". They are welcome to attend our programs, movies, clubs, etc., and to be on the campus as much as they like.

We realize that many of them were homesick at first, but lately, due to little get-togethers of their own, they have shown a decided change in mood. We hope they continue to be happy here.

Another thing—it certainly is good to see their cute little girls and boys, too! Let's see—so far, "Mike" Dorney, Louise Thompson, Scott Husted and "Buzzie" Harris have made their debut, and they, too, are joining college activities—at least they like to hear the music in Straughn Hall. Who knows, some day they may be appearing on the stage in Straughn Hall entertaining a vast sea of people—funny thought, isn't it?

Anyway, welcome, "G. I. James", and may your stay in Mansfield be most pleasant!

Dr. Stout: "Have you heard my last joke?"

Elly: "I hope so!"

DAY STUDENT NEWS

With St. Patrick's Day as the theme the Day Students held their luncheon in the "Y" rooms on Wednesday, March 20, with thirty-two present.

Ruth Mase could ask the day students for a recommendation anytime after planning and preparing: Spanish Rice, Peach and Phila. Cream Cheese Salad, Rolls, Tea, and Cup Cakes. (Don't you wish you were a day student?)

Shirley Hollenbach was elected Vice President for the coming year to replace Betsy Leach, who was over-pointed. Ask Betsy Leach who she nominated?!?! Pauline Schanbacher is the President and Mary Rogan, Secretary-Treasurer.

The Day Students are planning a really BIG picnic at the Grand Canyon in the last part of May. They even have the transportation.

Myra Harrington, gave a clever reading, "Aunt Jemina's Courtship." "Jeanie" Jones' humorous reading was "Elmira's Beau."

Ada Shaw played Irish songs for group singing which concluded the meeting.

Mrs. Morgan: "Jimmy, didn't I hear the clock strike two as you came in?"

Mr. Morgan: "You did, dear. It started to strike ten, but I stopped it to keep it from waking you up."

Clerk: "Sorry, lady, a marriage license can be issued only when the form is properly filled out."

Hopeful Miss: "It that so? We can get married no matter what I look like."

SPORTS

Past—Present—Future

The 1945-46 basketball season at M.S.T.C. officially terminated with the playing of the Lock Haven game at Mansfield on March 13. Lock Haven, topping the State Teachers College team, won by the score of 35-26. With the playing of this game the Mansfield team ended what they consider a worthwhile and enjoyable basketball season. Out of sixteen games played, the team won six. Perhaps one could not call this a successful season, but it is a good start for future teams and a great deal of credit should go to Coach Marvin and the boys for their efforts and for providing the college with a basketball program. I am sure that everyone enjoyed the games and there is one thing that we are all happy about; the fact that a sports program has been re-established at Mansfield State with big plans for the future.

From now until next fall, there probably will be no intercollegiate sports. I do not think that baseball will be started this year, due to the lack of time, but there probably will be an intra-mural softball league among the fellows. At present several teams are in the process of organizing. Bowling teams have already been organized and a men's bowling tournament has been started.

Probably the next big season to look forward to will be that of the 1946 football season, scheduled to start next fall. All of us have seen the several football players that have entered school this semester along with former Mansfield football stars. The material looks very good with encouraging prospects for a winning team. The scheduling of games is now under way with most of the other Pennsylvania State Teachers College teams appearing on the list of opponents.

The new "ship of sports" has been launched at M.S.T.C. and we hope for smooth sailing.

Dissertation on a Kiss:

A kiss is a peculiar proposition of no use to one, but absolute bliss to two. The small boy gets it for nothing, the young man has to steal it, and the old man has to buy it. The baby's right, the lover's privilege, the hypocrite's mask. To a young girl, faith; to a married woman, hope; to an old maid charity.

Eighty-first Annual Commencement At M. S. T. C.

Seniors of '46

MAY DAY, 1946.

Mansfield will usher in its eighty-first commencement season on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, May 25, 26 and 27, when alumni, friends and relatives will gather together to see the thirty-one members of the Class of 1946 receive their degrees. This is the first class to graduate since World War II, and the first class to have veterans who have returned to their Alma Mater to complete their education which the war interrupted. They are proud of their school, and we are proud of every member of the Class of 1946. We, of the Flashlight Staff, wish to extend our best wishes for success to every member, and it is our hope that each member may continue to be proud of M. S. T. C. and will make M. S. T. C. proud of him.

ALUMNI DAY

Alumni Day is being resumed again this year after having been cancelled last year due to transportation difficulties.

Alumni Day opens at 10:00 p. m., Saturday, May 25th, with registration in Straughn Hall Foyer. Lloyd Jones, 26, Shinglehouse, is chairman of the General Alumni business meeting. This will be followed by the procession of Class of 1946. The class will be presented to the alumni association by their adviser, Miss Farrer, for membership. Mr. Herbert Peterson, president of the General Association, will receive the class into membership. Sylvia Beck, President of the Class of '46 will accept the membership for the class. The Men's Chorus will furnish a musical number and the meeting will be closed following a message of greetings to the Alumni by President Morgan.

A luncheon will be held at 1:00 p. m. in the college dining room. At 3:00 p. m. the decennial classes will meet in assigned rooms in the Arts Building. The class of '21 is also celebrating their 25th anniversary this year. Then, because of the transportation difficulties last year the decennial classes of last year are meeting this year instead, except for the 1885 and 1895 classes which were held last year.

The Alumni Exhibit will be held in the library from 2:00 until 4:00 p. m. And at 4:00 p. m. President and Mrs. Morgan will be at home to all alumni.

At 8:15 p. m. the Music Education Department will hold a concert in Straughn Hall.

BACCALAUREATE SERVICE

The Baccalaureate Service will be held Sunday, May 26 at 10:30 a. m. in Straughn Hall. The Reverend Ralph T. Haas will deliver the sermon.

Since February, 1943, he has been minister at the Hickory St. Church. #### COUNCILS ENTERTAINED

The 1945-46 Student and Dormitory Councils entertained the 1946-'47 Councils at a banquet May 1st at the Penn-Wells Hotel in Wellsboro. After the banquet past-president of Student Council Marie Scudder gave a short speech extending a welcome to all new officers of both Dorm and Student Councils.

President Morgan gave an interesting talk to the group and wished all members "God Luck."

After the business meeting there was dancing and card playing. The dancing in tune to Danny Thomas' new phonograph.

May we say farewell to the members of Student Council who are leaving us and "Hello" to those who join us for the first time. "Good Luck, ids."

ATOMICS OUT IN FRONT

The Soft Ball League, headed by Mr. Marvin, opened a few weeks ago with the Atomic Nine and the Gladiators in a riotous rush for early league leadership. The Atomic Nine had too much power at the plate and won by a score of 12 to 10. Ruthian blows by the Mollahan boys, Joe and Pete, proved that they were true Atoms. Defensive honors went to Pat Cunningham, of the Atomic Nine and Stewart of the Gladiators.

The second game saw the Liberators defeat the highly rated Hot Shots. Shortstop Kenney's circuit clout for the Liberators was the main offensive play of the day. First Sacker Weed and Catcher Scudder proved to be brilliant defensive men. The game ended with the score: Liberators 15; Hot Shots 9.

The last game played by the Gladiators and the Liberators proved that there was an intense rivalry in the league. The game played at the High School Field was strictly a Dygert-Novak affair. Dygert, pitcher for the Liberators struck out ten batsmen, while Novak hit two home runs for the Gladiators. Novak was called out on his first round-tripper for failing to touch third base, thereby receiving credit for a double. That is an official ruling. But in our books it goes down as a home run for it was the mightiest blow seen to date.

These blows coupled with the hustle of Magalski and Mancia proved too much for the Liberators. Score: Gladiators 7; Liberators 6.

All of the games were well attended by students and townspeople, and "Hap" Leopold is doing a great job officiating at these games.

In a free-hitting contest, highlighted by intemperate mayhem, the rampant Atomic Nine out-slugged the ever-surprising Hot-Shots, 10 to 9. The score hardly tells of the rabid rivalry exhibited. After trailing 9-6, the Atoms came to bat in the last half of the fifth inning and blasted Pitcher Meade of the Hot Shots for four runs. Nick Faduska, hitting in the clean-up spot, was the first man up for the Atoms in the fifth. He tripled. Wilson, the next batter hit a hard drive down the third base foul line, it was called foul by Umpire Leopold. Enraged by having their rally temporarily halted, the Atoms, led by Bill Johnson rushed to Umpire Leopold for a change in decision, arms moved menacingly, but as is always the rule peace was restored and the game went on with Wilson still at bat. Wilson hit safely scoring Faduska. Consecutive hits by P. Mol-

WHERE THEY WILL TEACH

The following '46 Seniors have made contracts to teach next fall. Their respective schools are listed. Elementary: Jean Brunner, Steelton, Penna.; Marie Scudder, North Port, New York.

Home Economics: Marjorie Ann Eick, Rulston, Penna.; Elizabeth Lord, Nicholson, Penna.; Carol McClintock, Leraysville, Penna.; Janice Madigan, Troy, Penna.; Eleanor Missemmer, Southold, Long Island, New York; Mildred Warner, Camp-town, Penna.

Secondary: Janet Read, Wayland, New York; John Stewart, Hammondsport, New York.

Music: Bernard Bryan, Mount Upton, New York; Mary Jane Peters, Horseheads, New York.

Roger: "Dad, what are ancestors?"

Mr. Lloyd: "Well, my son, I'm one of yours. Your grandpa is another."

Roger: "Oh! Then why is it people brag about them?"

Iahan, J. Mollahan, Markle and Jones provided enough runs for the Atoms to ead 10-9.

Faduska and Wilson of the Atoms blasted tremendous circuit clouts, supplying the game with hitting thrills. Joe Mollahan's catch which made him race to the bank of the Tioga showed plenty of fielding know-how. Berg, Norman and Smith (did) outstanding work for the Hot Shots.

"Hap" Leopold's officiating left nothing to be desired (in that line.)

"RIGHT DOWN THE ALLEY"

The bowling alleys have really been taking a beating lately, and with the organization of all these super teams its little wonder. High scorers of the league were Bob Martin who hit a beautiful 189 and Nick Faduska who was right in there with his 183. Nice going, fellows.

The team that walked away with the blue ribbon goes by the name of Tigers (appropriate?) and is captained by Jess Jones.

Individual high averages of the league are:

Bob Martin of the Blockbusters, 150.
Nick Faduska of the Dragons, 147.
Al Dygert of the Dragons, 147.
Teams who put up stiff competition for the Tigers were:
Dragons, Captain Al Dygert.
Blockbusters, Captain Ted Novak.
Spartans, Captain Jim Kenney.

The annual May Day Festivities began promptly at two o'clock in Straughn Hall on Saturday, May the fourth. The auditorium filled rapidly and the excited whisperings among the students rose to a hum until one entering the hall could catch phrases and questions which all seemed to be centered around one thought—"Who will be the May Queen?"

The murmuring ceased at the opening chords of music played by Edith Warren at the piano. Then from the back of the auditorium the Freshmen May-Pole dancers skipped merrily down the aisles and onto the stage. Exclamations of delight and surprise arose from the audience when the curtains were drawn to reveal the beautiful throne of the May Queen set against a lattice background of flowers and petals strewn over the green-covered steps leading to the throne.

After the girls had finished their dance, a loud peal from the organ announced the Processional of the May Queen and her court. Immediately all eyes turned to the rear of the auditorium where the first two maids were starting down the aisles. Watching the girls glide down the aisles and take their places on the gaily decorated platform, the audience soon forgot the damp, rainy weather which had threatened the gay colors of Spring. The attendants carried lovely bouquets of mixed flowers.

Suddenly from the back of the hall a figure dressed in a beautiful gown of white came slowly down the aisle carrying a bouquet of flowers that matched the color of the gown.

All eyes strained to see who had won the honor of bearing the title of "May Queen," as she slowly approached the front of the auditorium. With her head held high and a beautiful smile on her face, and with the carriage of a true Queen, Marie Scudder proved to be just what she portrayed—"The Queen of the May." Before her marched the court composed of Emilie Kerlin, Georgia Colwell, Eileen Leonard, Carol McClintock, Jane Pawling Owens, Patricia James, Elizabeth Wetmore and Mary Jane Peters.

Unable to suppress their pleasure and great delight in beholding their "Queen," the audience sighed audibly as their future president of Student Council assisted her up the steps to the throne. Kneeling on the top step, she bowed her head

M. S. T. C. AGAIN "HELPS OUT"

The organizations have again made Mansfield's name stand out in proud honor! This time they have proven to one and all that we don't "lag behind" on anything; especially when it comes to sacrificing for our country, and for the aid of other countries.

The Student Council sponsored a Victory Food Drive for the help of the less fortunate European countries. Each organization was asked to give up refreshment money for two regular meetings—that meant that those poor souls who go to club meetings primarily for food were forced to visit the Dairy Store or beg from their neighbors. But be that as it may, the clubs really came across. And with this money canned food was purchased for the European Countries. Listed below are the clubs and their respective donations:

EDITORIAL

APPRECIATION

May we take this opportunity to extend Congratulations and Thanks to the old Flashlight Board for the wonderful job it did this past school year on publishing the Flashlight. Also, we want to extend a hearty welcome to all new members, who have joined our staff for '46 and '47. We're more than sure that we can make the Flashlight one of the big items on Mansfield's Campus next year.

GOOD LUCK

Another year—how fast—and yet at times we thought so slow, but now the realization that the year is really completed amazes most of us. Another year and another class; this class will be leaving M. S. T. C., we hope for not too long a period before its members visit us. We'll miss their cheery yells in the halls, their pleasant personalities, their optimistic outlook on upperclassmen's problems, their general good will toward all of us. We'll really miss you seniors, but we'll know you're holding up the traditions of M. S. T. C. We are counting on you to help build our torn society. You have a chance to fulfill many of our dreams before we can make our expectations come true. We all wish you lots of luck!

MANSFIELD — FALL OF '46

May has come, and is practically gone already. In a few days the Seniors will have completed their one big milestone of life—the one which is probably anticipated most eagerly by all students; in a few days the Juniors will be wending their merry ways home shouting, "Hey, Mom, I'm a Senior!"; the Sophomores will be leaving Mansfield, not reluctantly, probably, with a big sigh of, "Well, two years are over," and the Freshmen?—well, they'll no doubt just sigh, period.

But there isn't any doubt in my mind that come next September we're going to see these same people back at M. S. T. C., happy as larks that "school's in again." And why wouldn't we? Just think what Mansfield will mean by then. Without giving it much thought one can come to the brilliant conclusion that Mansfield will mean much more than just a college nestled among a lot of pretty trees and surrounded by spacious lawns—Yes, sir! Probably everyone has his own conception of Mansfield then, but here's my idea of Mansfield, Fall of '46:

M—Men 'n more men.

A—Assemblies drawing larger crowds (so I've heard.)

N—North Hall filled to capacity.

S—South Hall activities soaring.

I—Instructors facing huge classes.

E—Everything in general on a peaceful basis. (?)

L—Lots of fun for everyone.

D—Dances—including Senior Ball.)

I could go on for ages thinking of things like that, but I think that does the trick. From where I sit I think that Mansfield's going to have a super big year ahead of her, and for those of us who spent the "war years" here, this fact can be fully appreciated.

Anyway, this year has been fun even tho' the work did seem to pile up!—We can all have more fun next year, so until then I'll just say I hope you all have a delightful summer and we'll see you all next September. Good Luck, Seniors.

THE KING'S GENERAL

By Daphne du Maurier

Honor Harris danced blithely away at the Duke of Buckingham's Ball on her eighteenth birthday, not knowing that before the night was over she would meet the famous and proud Sir Richard Grenville, the King's General in the West. She did not know that this same Sir Richard would court her tempestuously, nor that a fall from her horse would cripple her for life almost on the very eve of their wedding. Deprived of her hopes for a happy marriage, it seemed to Honor that she had nothing left to live for. But live she had to; and, turning her keen mind to books, she eventually became tranquil in the pursuit of knowledge. For years she lived in this way when an event occurred to shatter the calm organization of her life. The year was 1642, in England—the date of the outbreak of the Civil War between Parliament and Charles II. Richard, whom she had not seen for fifteen years, came into her life again in his position as a general in the Royalist forces to bring her moments of joy and grief, anxiety and great happiness.

It would not be fair to finish the story here—you must do that for yourself. In it, you will find the account of a love which defied time and convention. You will read of the plunder and pillage of the Civil War and realize that it was just as real to those people as this last war has been to us. This book not only furnishes romance and excitement, but mystery as well; for there is a secret tunnel used by a madman and an evil woman with an angelic face.

The King's General will not only entertain you, but it will immeasurably add to your understanding of English history. The characters in it are real—Sir Richard Grenville was an actual person; the house with the secret tunnel is still standing and the grave of Honor Harris is marked in the cemetery at Tywardreath. In The King's General, Daphne du Maurier again achieves the success of her former triumphs of Frenchman's Creek and Rebecca.

"LES MISERABLES" AND "KRISTIN LAVRANDSDATTER"

This month we're going to swing to the other extreme. All readers probably assumed that not only was the author of "My Name Is Aram" crazy; but that the writer of "Have You Read" in the March 12 Flashlight was even crazier.

So this issue we go cultural. Not only do we go cultural, but we consider some of the best literature to be found in the English language—meaning "Kristin Lavransdatter" by Sigrid Undset, and "Les Miserables" by Victor Hugo.

"Kristin Lavransdatter" is probably not as well known as "Les Miserables", but in our judgment for pure reading enjoyment it is superior to the latter. More competent authorities than those of the Flashlight considered "Kristin Lavransdatter" good, for in 1928 it was awarded the Nobel Prize.

"Kristin Lavransdatter" was a prize winner for good reason. It is as readable as "Gone With the Wind," and even more fascinating. We come to know 14th Century Kristin well, for the novel traces her entire life from girlhood to the grave. Success, failure, love, happiness, and sadness all leave their mark on Kristin, but never is the picture of a great character of fiction blurred or lost to the eye of the reader.

Now, what of "Les Miserables"? Few of us, indeed, have managed to arrive at college without at least an introduction to "Les Miserables". When asked an opinion of this great book, some people are delicately non-committal. Others may praise the work. The rest wish the book never had been written. In it Jean Valjean and Javert move relentlessly through one thousand odd pages of this tremendously powerful romance. Jean, the convict, is always a convict. Good deeds, wealth, love and even life itself must all step aside to the great power-punishment for crime. The story is almost unbelievably intricate, but throughout it all there is the unmistakable power of greatness.

COLLEGE PLAYERS CONCLUDE BANNER YEAR

The College Players concluded a banner year on Wednesday evening, May 15, with a semi-formal banquet at the Penn Wells Hotel in Wellsboro. This was the final event of a busy and successful year.

Led capably through its first post-war season by President Betty T. Lord (with the aid of sponsor Miss Allen,) College Players has presented two full length stage plays. The first, "Jane Eyre," was presented in December with Clarice Stilwell and Edward Degville portraying Jane Eyre and Mr. Rochester respectively. The second, "Clarence" was presented in April with Jack Snyder in the title role. Less spectacular, but of as much interest to the members have been the programs of the regular meetings which have featured Junior High School students, Dr. Elizabeth Swan, and members of the organization.

College Players has been successful in that retiring officers President Betty T. Lord, Vice President Sue Smythe, Secretary Virginia Kast and Treasurer Charles Weed are to be succeeded in 1946-47 by President-elect Sue Smythe, Vice President-elect Jack Wilcox, Secretary-elect William Wingert and Treasurer-elect Eleanor Nash. Finally, College Players has been successful financially, making over $150 on "Clarence" alone.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Do you want to accelerate your college program, make-up credits you lack, or add new subjects to your certificate? If so, then come to Mansfield State Teachers College this summer.

There are a variety of increased opportunities offered to students who wish to take summer courses: Art, Education, Psychology, English, Foreign Languages, Health, Mathematics, Music, Biological and Physical Sciences, Geography, History and Social Science.

The summer session is divided into three parts. The first is the pre-session, beginning June third and lasting for three weeks, the regular session beginning June twenty-fourth. Last is the post-session of three weeks beginning August fifth.

Further information can be obtained from Mr. Eugene E. Bertin, Director of Summer Sessions.

"THE RED CROSS NEEDS YOUR HELP"

The hungry can't wait. Millions are facing death by starvation. Americans must help! Here's how you can cooperate with the President's famine Emergency Relief Committee. This Red Cross Guide shows the way.

1. What to save?

Fats, oils and wheat. Save now: Salad oil, olive oil, cooking oil. Margarine, butter, lard, cooking fats. Bread, crackers, rolls, cake, pastry, spaghetti, noodles. All cereals except oatmeal. Cut these down, or off your list.

2. Eat to Save.

Eat as much as you ever have—except items listed above. Eat fruit, ice cream and custards for dessert instead of pastry, buns and cake.

Use potatoes instead of bread. Serve oatmeal instead of wheat cereals.

A slice of bread saved each day in every home will mean one million loaves a day for Europe's starving people; and one single teaspoon of fat saved by every person in America will make available one million pounds of fat.

(Eds. Note) We realize that we, as college students, can play a large part in helping to ward off starvation in Europe's countries. We must do everything humanly possible to aid the efforts of our American Red Cross in their great work in the war stricken countries. Please read the above carefully and abide by it to the best of your ability.

PROGRAM MAKING FOR FALL OF 1946

Tuesday evening, May 23 is the date set for program making for '46 and '47. ## MANSFIELD CELEBRATES 81ST COMMENCEMENT

The Anthem, "Hosanna to the Son of David," by Gibbons will be sung by the Motet Choir.

The recessional for the class will be the "Cortege."

Sunday evening at 8:15 p. m. there will be a program of Chamber Music in Straughn Hall. The Madrigal Singers and Instrumental Soloists from the Music Department will present this program.

COMMENCEMENT SERVICE

The Commencement services will begin with the Academic procession at 10:00 a. m. Monday, May 27. The Commencement Processional and prelude with Jean Kohler as organist, will be the Festal March by Diggle and the Chorale in by Franck. The Commencement proper will start at 10:15 a. m. in Straughn Hall. Charles C. Noble will deliver the address.

Charles C. Noble

Charles C. Noble is Dean of Hendricks Chapel at Syracuse University, Syracuse, N. Y.

Dean Noble, before assuming his present distinguished position, held prominent Methodist pastorates throughout the East: King's Highway Church, Brooklyn; First Church, Hartford; Christ Church, Glens Falls, and First Church, Syracuse.

He has won wide reputation before service clubs, schools, colleges, educational conferences and other groups for his brilliant addresses in which both the humorous and the serious are skillfully blended. He is also recognized for his leadership in civic and educational affairs.

Dean Noble was educated at Newton High School, Wilbraham Academy, Williams College and Union Theological Seminary.

At present, Dean Noble is director of the Rotary Club of Syracuse, Mental Hygiene Committee, American Red Cross, Clinic for Returned Veterans, and Syracuse Council of Churches. He is President of the Syracuse Lenten Series and Director of New York States' Y. M. C. A. He is the author of numerous magazine articles and educational films. His subject for the Commencement services will be "Life Demands Convictions."

President Morgan will confer the degrees and Jack Wilcox will sing a baritone solo "Vision Fugitive" from Herodiade by Massenet.

The Recessional will be the Festal March by Diggle.

ASSEMBLY PROGRAMS

The first assembly following Easter vacation was presented by Miss Olive Bery, a Simplicity Education Stylist, who displayed several very attractive costumes and introduced clever ideas for changing the appearance of the gowns. Women selected from the student body served as models for Miss Bery.

Members of the Home Making Education Department gave a fashion show Tuesday, April 30th, in which the girls modeled their own frocks in various campus scenes and the narrators pointed out the individuality in each by referring to color, style and material. The climax came with the display of the suits made by the Senior girls and the varieties of colors and styles were noted here also.

Mr. Ned Brooks, Washington Correspondent for the Scripps Howard Paper was the speaker at assembly May 7th. His speech was highly informative and educational. Mr. Brooks was especially welcomed to our campus because he is the brother of Miss Marjorie Brooks, head of the Music Education Department.

The forty-two members of the Women's Chorus entertained the student body with a delightful program of a variety of numbers. The number in which Mrs. Kohler played the obligato was excellent. The Women's Chorus is under the efficient supervision of Miss Clarissa Randall.

President Morgan addressed the last assembly of the year 1945-46 as is the tradition. Following his timely remarks he presented the certificates to the six seniors elected to Who's Who on Campuses of American Colleges and Universities. Those elected were Sylvia Beck, Patricia James, Carol McClintock, Marie Scudder, Jane Pawling Owens and Mary Jane Peters.

SECONDARY NEWS

The April meeting of the Secondary Club was held on the 29th with the faculty in charge of the program.

During the business meeting the members welcomed Cecil Simmons as president for next year and the other new officers: Marlea Rice, Secretary and Janice Ford, Treasurer. The Club decided to close a year of successful meetings by a picnic at Corey Creek.

The faculty drew a large attendance and kept us well entertained with a program of games. We had fun playing "Murder" and "Human Checkers," but the highpoint of the entertainment came during the portrayal of "The Stork Club" when "the club" impersonated by Dr. Stout came in contact with one of the light globes, and spread pieces of glass over the front of the room. Dr. Stout insisted that it wasn't part of the act, but we're not convinced.

Afterwards we received refreshments and the meeting adjourned.

The Secondary Club has been in hopes that it could get a date for a picnic sometime this month. Next year, with a larger enrollment, and the return of many more veterans (we hope) the Secondary Club should really come out on top. We are looking forward to a great year.

ELEMENTARY NEWS

During the year the Campus Schools have bought a total of $442 worth of stamps and bonds. At the present time a member of the elementary grades are preparing programs for parent's visitation. In April Miss Habeger's second grade put on an assembly program for the college. This program was an exhibition of puppets. The program was very much enjoyed by the student body.

At the last meeting of the Elementary Club, Miss Mae Beach, now teaching at Waverly, New York and Miss Florence Hedge, now teaching at Merchantville, New Jersey, returned to Mansfield to speak before the club. They talked about their experiences during their first year of teaching, especially during the first few weeks. This talk was most practical and entertaining. What the young ladies said was evidence that they were fully competent to take care of the difficulties which confronted them during the first few weeks.

The eighth grade examinations are scheduled for Tuesday, May 14th, and the eighth graders are busily preparing for this examination. This is the smallest eighth grade class in some years.

by the "crude method." Well, more power to you dear froshi!

Well, those poor Sophomores are having their troubles, too. In a demonstration in home management of the efficiency of a vacuum cleaner and its parts—the cleaner did not prove very efficient. After spreading powder on a rug it had to be rubbed briskly and for a long time to get all the particles. Spreading powder on the table was impossible to remove without the aid of a plain dust cloth. Such efficiency!

We want to say "Goodbye" to our thirteen Seniors who are thoughtlessly and carelessly walking through the corridors of North Hall. Their last project for clothing seems to be quite a funny but exciting one. They are draping and making their own blouses. Some look like barns but the finished products really are very nice. We hope that these Seniors who leave with us pleasant memories will find happiness in whatever vocation they follow.

Y. W. C. A. NEWS

The "Y," like every other campus organization is busy now that the end of the school year is in sight. Last Thursday viewed the installation of next year's cabinet with a very impressive candle light ceremony. This week everyone enjoyed the picnic and this Thursday evening the cabinet members attended the annual "Y" banquet.

Miss Leone Sykes was with us for two days this week to offer advice and encouragement in our meetings and activities. We always enjoy having Miss Sykes with us and look forward to her visit each year.

We are seeing the end of another successful Y. W. C. A. year and we shall look forward to a fine fellowship next year.

ARTIST PROGRAMS

On Tuesday, April 9th in Assembly at 2 p. m., Earl Spicer, a baritone and ballad singer from New York City, gave a musical program. He rendered many well known selections.

On Friday, April 26, at 8:15 p. m., an evening artist program was given by Mr. Jean Charles Kohler. The program consisted of an arrangement of favorite piano solos, all of which were excellently given and furnished welcome entertainment for the large audience.

In Assembly, on May 7th at 2 p. m., Mr. Ned Brooks, a Washington correspondent, gave an interesting address on "News Behind the News in Washington." Mr. Brooks has been employed by the Scripps-Howard Newspaper Alliance for more than 13 years. It is also interesting to know that Mr. Brooks is a brother of Miss Marjorie Brooks, who is the Director of the Music Department here at this college.

DAY STUDENT CLUB

The Women's Day Student Club will terminate an enjoyable year of activities with a picnic supper at Harrison's Look-out on Tuesday, May twenty-first at 5:00 p. m.

This year the Day Student Club has been well organized by our efficient president, Janice Madigan. We want to extend thanks to Janice for all she has done for us and may she have the best of luck in her teaching career.

The day students at M. S. T. C. have in the past few years been rather small in number and their activities limited to a few luncheons and their annual picnic at the end of the year. Next year there promises to be a larger organization, and it seems that Betsy would like to make the men's and women's day student clubs a joint affair—or did you think that the women should have a man for vice-president? Betsy?

Goo'by, all—have fun this summer!

PHI MU ALPHA NEWS

Dr. Burrows, Governor of the Eastern Province of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia fraternity and Professor of Pigno Pedagogy at Columbia Teachers College, visited the Beta Omnicron Chapter of Phi Mu Alpha on campus April 3rd. Fraternity members had dinner with Dr. Burrows in the College dining room. A meeting was held in the "frat" room later in the evening and Dr. Burrows spoke on "Problems of the Fraternity."

Election of officers was held to fill the vacancies left by the graduation of four members: "Bob" Minard, "Danny" Hooley, "Barnie" Bryan, and "Dick" Dorney. The offices filled were: President, "Will" Moyle; Treasurer, "Jim" Ritter; and Warden "Bill" Wingert.

"Frat" members enjoyed themselves to the utmost at their outing at White's Cottage Saturday May 18th.

MAY DAY 1946

as Charles Weed placed the silver crown atop her golden brown locks; and as she took her position on the throne, the stillness of the auditorium was broken by the spontaneous applause of the audience.

After the patter had subsided, the Sophomore Women of the Music Department presented a pageant entitled "A Dance Offering to Peace." The narrator, Regina Seeley, announced the numbers and gave a brief explanation of each dance. This program included French, English, Russian, Ukrainian, Chinese, and early American dances. The girls were accompanied by Daniel Hooley, Eleanor Weber and the Wind Band directed by Bernard Bryan. To climax the afternoon program, the Freshmen Women performed the traditional May Pole Dance.

At six o'clock the Queen and her Court were guests of President and Mrs. Morgan and Miss Wasley at a dinner served in the college dining room. Again there was a processional, and the Queen and her court moved gracefully to their beautifully decorated table which had a miniature May Pole as its centerpiece. The ribbon streamers ran to each name card and encircled a small bouquet of sweet peas.

After the dinner and recessional, the "Esquirettes" provided music for a dance in honor of the Queen and her court. Dancing began at seven o'clock and continued until ten p. m.

Truly, May Day will be the happiest day of Spring in the minds of our gracious Queen and her court as well as in the minds of those who witnessed the beautiful coronation and May Day program.

FROM THE FRATERNITIES

The recently revived fraternities of South Hall have sounded their traditional gavels and are once again being recognized through their efficient program of activities.

Within the cherished walls of Phi Sigma Pi, the members under the leadership of Brother Payne, have decided to honor their fallen brothers of World War II by placing framed portraits of them on the walls of the fraternity room. The former members of Phi Sigma Pi, who paid the supreme sacrifice and who deserve this noble recognition are Melvin Skerpon, John Belne and Robert Van Horn. Brother Wagner was elected to fill the office of fraternity treasurer, vacated by Brother Thomas, who accepted the position of Sports Editor on the Carontawan Board. The generosity of Brother Ayers gifted the fraternity with two beautiful table lamps. A need for new furniture has been brought to the attention of the members.

With activities progressing in such an encouraging manner, Phi Sigma Pi is looking forward to a very successful and enjoyable program for the coming college year.

HOMEMAKING NEWS

Fashions! Styles! The Homemaking Department featured two fashion shows during the month of April. The first was held on April 25th under the direction of Miss Berry from the Simplicity Pattern Company. The afternoon dresses, sports clothes and evening clothes were modeled by girls from various departments. These clothes had been made by the Simplicity Pattern Company. M/S. T. C. certainly is trying to be in vogue in everything they wear.

The annual fashion show given by the Homemaking Department of the clothes they made during the school year was presented in the form of a skit entitled "Miss 1890 presents Miss 1940." The first scene depicted a dormitory room with the Freshmen in their pajamas, housecoats and brunch coats; the second an afternoon recital with the Sophomores in their rayon dresses; third a street scene with the Freshmen in cotton tailored dresses; fourth an afternoon tea with the Sophomores in rayon dresses; fifth a church scene with the Seniors in their suits and last a school scene with the Freshmen in their wool skirts.

The Omicron Gamma Pi held its last meeting on May 8th in the "Y" rooms in honor of the Seniors. There was a special skit dedicated to the Seniors and presented by the Freshmen, entitled "So You're Going to Teach School." The girls that attended the Art Club convention shared their experience with the rest of the Omicron girls. They were Pauline Shanbacher, Jane Owens and Janice Madigan. Jean Maxwell, Doris Wilson and Vesta Fiddler gave a report about their trip to Pittsburgh to learn about vacations for Homemaking Education graduates.

Have you seen the "little Freshmen" walking around with their chopped cheese bones? They're really not so hungry that they must carry their lunch with them. They're just learning how to weave

JOTTINGS OF A COUNCIL MEMBER

CIL MEMBER

Meeting was called to order by the new president Chuck Weed. He was wearing his honors most proudly. Everyone there on time (including the Dean of Women, who was at her jolly best) except Ruth Izer, who was given the privilege of closing the door. Program committees and chairman were chosen for next year's activities. Everyone got hooked? . . . Topics discussed were compulsory attendance of assembly (revoked, of course!) Vespers for '46 and '47, formal dances. . . . Paul, you've got wonderful ability to pick suitable dance dates—on the calendar I mean. . . . Football games Hy, Joe, why for, the mad desire to have girls go to out of town football games, is there a motive to your madness? . . . Seems like the council's gonna have a big year coming up. . . . especially with such charming little "hank You" notes to prime us on. . . . we hope. . . . Some people have such excellent taste. . . . Poor Wellington nearly knocked himself out jotting down the minutes. . . . it should be suggested that someone bring along an extra arm to avoid catastrophe. Anyway the meeting was a success and all returned to their respective abodes in their right minds (?) Ta, Ta, for now—See ya' next Fall!

LAMBDA MU

Sunday, May 5th, Lambda Mu had "open house" to all members of the Music Department.

It was a social gathering for everyone to meet and visit with their friends. Refreshments of coffee and cookies were served.

The main guests present were Miss Wasley, Miss Brooks, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Kohler, Miss Atwater, Miss Randall and Mrs. Ledwith.

SEEN AND HEARD BY KILROY

What degree of good did your room get in the last inspection? This is not the army Mr. A. Be careful fellows they will have you falling out in your raincoat next. . . . It is nice to see the men professors attending the softball games. While we are on this, to your reporter it looks like the Atomic Nine all the way, with Liberators and the Gladiators fighting for second, too bad about the Hot Shots; it looks like the cellar for them. . . . Where do the get this stuff "Nick's Long Bar," maybe them mean Richties. . . . Was that Jim Kenney we saw sleeping out in the hall way as a result of losing a softball game. Be careful Jim, next time it will be the B. R. S. . . . Why is it that one man, or I should say boy, around here thinks that he can run the mail and all? Wait 'till his Uncle Sammy gets him. . . . Let's get Bud Smith a parachute, he seems lost without. . . . One of the best stories to come out of the classroom lately; Dr. Stout: Mr. Moran, what kind of trees do they have in Canada? Mr. Moran: Why Wooden ones. . . . What the dining room needs is a good old army sergeant to keep the lines moving. . . . Who is the culprit that is always taking the toothpaste from the washrooms? Miss Scudder, let Kilroy say that you and your court were lovely at the recent May Day celebration. More hitting and less chewing on the part of the Liberators will make them a better team. . . . Next time you see Pat Cunningham ask him if he was successful in removing the knife. . . . Wellington's 5 o'clock shadow brings out the 5 & 10 razor that causes all the disturbances on the radios that wouldn't give justice to a jack hammer. . . . How funny it seems to see the pool table all fixed up and no cues to play with. . . . See where Las Vegas is in operation; who is the clientele, Chick? . . . Joe Mollahan seems to be able to hobble along pretty well once again; be careful next time Joe. . . . They really play softball and that's the spirit to have. . . . Could it be that a certain Irishman spent too many days on the Island of Galapagos, it seems as though he can never get enough time to wash. . . . Nice to see the Student Council back on peace time standards. Here's wishing Chuck and all his members the best of luck and let's try and get the three shirts back once again. . . . The geology class seemed to enjoy the field trip the other day or was it a better meal. . . . Orville Dickerson can be seen each evening moseying up along the swimming pool. . . . Flash! Stroud showered again. Don Juan Razey is a steady occupant of the reception room. . . . Dygert seems to like the early mornings to do his singing. . . . Didn't they pick lovely days for the picnics. . . . And now here's all the best to the class of 1946—May success and good luck be yours—30.

GIRLS' SPORTS IN SHORTS

"Spring is sprung, the grass is riz" we can see where the tennis fan is. Have you noticed how the courts have been busy from dawn to dark with all the enthusiasts? Looks like we have a couple of "Pro's" on the campus too.

The tournaments are being played off, and although they aren't all completed, Heasley and Hammond won the Jr. Table Tennis doubles. Curtis and Vincent played the best sophomore doubles. The Freshman tournament is not completed. The badminton and volley ball tournaments are still in full swing.

The W. A. A. hike was called off because "the rains came," but it is scheduled for some morning the week of May 12th. We wish you better weather this time, gals!

Mr. Brown arrived on campus and has been giving the "mer and sir" maids a vigorous workout. He really knows all about lifesaving—doesn't he, Capwell?

The new officers for W. A. A. are as follows:

President, Mille Hart.
Vice President, Margie Scheerer.
Treasurer, Lita Muth.
Secretary, Wilma Lewis.

Have a nice summer everybody and you who stay on campus be sure to enjoy the sports—in shorts.

To the Point

Love begins when a woman sinks into a man's arms, but it winds up with her arms in a sink. . . . Face powder helps to catch a man, but it takes baking powder to keep him. . . . When you buy things for a song, look out for the accompaniment. . . . Some people who have not respect for age should set good examples for the young men will follow them.

Thomas: "Show me a tough guy and I'll show you a coward."
Piccolo: "Well, I'm a tough guy."
Thomas: "Well, I'm coward."

Definitions:

Conscience: Something that feels terrible when everything else feels good.

Middle Age: The time when you'll do anything to feel better, except give up what's hurting you.

Flatterer: One who says things to your face that he wouldn't say behind your back.

Meteorologist: A man who can look into a girl's eyes and tell whether.

WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

"Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" has an integral part of college and business life, functioning in several vital capacities.

From our college, Mansfield State Teachers College, the following persons from the Senior Class have been chosen to represent our college in the annual publication of "Who's Who".

Harold Besanceney—at present Harold is the editor-in-chief of the yearbook, "The Carontawan." Harold is from Mansfield and has taken part extensively in extra-curricular activities. The admiration which Harold receives from both faculty and students is outstanding, as is Harold himself.

Robert Magalski, from Wilkes-Barre, Penna., has returned to M. S. T. C. after spending three years in the U. S. Army. He is captain of our football team, "The Mountaineers." Bob's personality is tops with all who know him, and his willingness to help makes him popular with all.

Bettejo Goodall—a music student from Liberty, Penna., is President of Kappa Delta Pi this year. Her three years at Mansfield have been filled with work and contributions for the college. Her personality and beautiful soprano voice will long be remembered by students and faculty at M. S. T. C. Activities belonged to—Dorm Council, Lambda Mu, Y. W. C. A., Chorus, Band, Orchestra, W. A. C., she has been a member of the following organizations: College Players, Flashlight, Senior Editor of the Carontawan, Secondary Club, W. A. A., Y. W. C. A., Student Director of College Players Production.

Paul Mulford, Wellsboro, Pa., President of the Senior Class. Paul returned to M. S. T. C. after spending two years in the U. S. Army. Prior to his entrance in the service he took part in many activities on the campus, and has again returned to many of them.

NEW MEMBERS OF OUR FACULTY

Students returning to Mansfield this fall discovered many new faces on campus, not only among members of the student body, but also among the faculty. Some of these faces, though new to many, were familiar to upperclassmen who were enrolled at the college when Uncle Sam called our boys for service.

Professor Herbert Manser, for twenty-three years head of the Department of Foreign Languages, has accepted a new position as Dean of Instruction. A product of Columbia University, he has studied in France and other parts of Europe. Samuel Long, the Dean of Men, was formerly a captain in the U. S. Air Forces stationed in India. Preceding his appointment in Mansfield, he was Personnel Director of Williamsport Technical Institute. The Assistant Dean of Women, Molly L. Reed, of Massachusetts, received her M.A. degree at Syracuse University. M. Lucille Hoff, assistant librarian, is a Mansfield alumnae. She also studied at George Peabody College in Tennessee and at Bucknell University.

With most of the vets enrolled in the Secondary Department, the number of the faculty members in this department raised considerably. Our new coach, Edward D. Casey, comes to us from Wilkes-Barre; and our athletic director, M. F. "Spotts" Decker is from Williamsport. Replacing Miss M. Morris as instructor in Health and Physical Education for women are Helen M. Diffenbach, of Virginia, and her assistant, Elizabeth R. Duff, of Ohio. Miss Diffenbach was formerly a commanding officer in the WAVES and she received her M.Ed. at Penn State in '43. Miss Duff, recently discharged from the Marines, studied at Kent University. Formerly stationed at Quantico, Virginia, she served three and one-half years with the Marines.

Heading the work in foreign languages is Sarah I. Drum from New Jersey, a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh and Johns Hopkins (M.A. in '43). Lloyd E. Howe, from Pittsburgh, is an instructor of Mathematics and Science. He did his graduate study at the University of Pittsburgh. Dr. Walter E. Nosal, of California, Pa., is giving instruction in Education. He served on the staff of California State Teachers College, did his undergraduate work at Albright College and Indiana State Teachers College, and his graduate work at Duke and at George Washington University. Dr. Newell A. Chappell, from Harrisburg, was formerly attached to the Bureau of Plant Pathology in the State Department of Agriculture. He now serves on the science staff. Mr. Evert R. Percy, of N. Y. and Mr. Kent L. Worthington, of Illinois, are the social science teachers. Mr. Worthington, recently discharged from the Navy (Lt. Commander), was stationed on the Murmansk "Run" for two years. He studied at the Susquehanna University at Selinsgrove, Pa., and at the University of Pennsylvania; he also served as Professor of Political Science for two years at MacMurray's College for Women in Jacksonville, Illinois.

The Department of Music claims five new instructors. Miss Florence R. Borkey, instructor of piano and harmony, studied at Eastman and Columbia University. She also studied under professional artists. Another instructor in piano and harmony is Mrs. Mary Heim, of New York. Having studied at the New England Conservatory and at Columbia University, she held a position in the Lee Academy in Maine and at the Wesleyan University. Conducting and orchestra and instructor of string instruments is Fritz Heim, also of New York. He, too, studied at the New England Conservatory and at Columbia University. Our two new voice teachers are Christine Lewis, of Missouri, and Albert Schroer, of Ohio. Mr.

Day Students Club (vice president), Vice President of Sophomore Class, President Junior year, W. A. A., Art Club, Pi Kappa Epsilon, Secondary, Y. W. C. A., Flashlight. Charles Weed, President of Student Council, will leave many contributions to M. S. T. C. when he leaves us. No one has worked more or given time more generously than Charles. He has been a member of College Players, the fraternities, Secondary Club and was a member of Student Council three years. Jack Wilcox, Music, has also returned to us after serving three years in the U. S. Army. He is President of Music Educators Club, and has taken his place in M. S. T. C. again by being a member of College Players, the fraternities, Music Educators, and devotes much of his time to extra curricular activities in the music department.

Schroer taught in various schools in Ohio before entering the service. Prior to his position at M. S. T. C. he served in the U. S. Army Wakeman General Hospital at Camp Atterbury, Indiana, doing rehabilitation work.

Heading the Home Management and Child Development Department is Christine Beasley of Alabama. She studied at Alabama College and Colorado State College. Lillian Gailbraith, of West Virginia, studied at California State Teachers College, the University of Tennessee and West Virginia University. She is the new supervisor of Student Teaching in Home Economics. Instructor of Clothing, Design and Consumer Education is Mabel E. Tandy, of Michigan. She studied at the University of Missouri, and Columbia University (M.A. '32).

English instructor at Junior High is Virginia Conson, of Georgia. Miss Conson studied at Randolph-Macon and at George Peabody College in the South. Former Supervising Principal in McKean County, Leo Lunn is an instructor in Mathematics and Science. He holds an M.Ed. degree from St. Bonaventure College. The new instructor in Industrial Arts, John J. Ruse from Tioga County, was recently discharged from military service. Richard Wilson, who for the past four years was Supervising Principal in Potter county, and who holds an M.Ed. degree from Penn State is teaching Science and Social Studies in Junior High.

Two supervisors in the Elementary Education Department are Harriet E. Kymer, a recent instructor at the University of Chicago Orthogenic School, who holds an A.M. degree ('46), and Joyce Schanbacher Carlyle (M.S.T.C.) a substitute supervisor.

Coming back after a leave of absence is Bertram M. Francis, band and instrumental instructor, recently discharged from the Navy.

SECONDARY CLUB NEWS

The secondary club held its first meeting on Sept. 25, in the reception room. President Cecil Simmons presided.

Since Dr. White has left, the club is without a sponsor, and nominations for a new sponsor were made. Dr. Nosal, Mr. Sundberg, and Miss Allen are the nominees. Ava Payne was nominated for secretary to fill the vacancy left by Marlea Rice.

HOMECOMING DAY—1946

The 1946 Homecoming Day is coming—on Saturday October 26, 1946. The committee with Rae Allen and Carl Payne as co-chairmen, and Ann McCawley, Ruth Rexford, Minnie Bender, Leatrice Cunningham, Earl Wilson, Bill Perkins and Niles Norman as co-workers, have sent out invitations to the last five graduating classes. However, all graduates are especially welcome to the Mansfield campus on this day.

The committee has scheduled registration in the Reception Room at 1:00 p. m. Following registration a parade will form at 1:30 p. m. in front of Straughn Hall to march to Smythe Park, where Mansfield's football team play host to Williamsport Dickinson Junior College's football team at 2:00 p. m.

Due to the crowded conditions in the dining room, it will be impossible again to have any guests in the dining room for meals, but, at 7:30 the Esquirtes will play for an informal three-hour dance for all students and guests.

Lambda Mu, as in former years, has scheduled their initiation in the Sorority Room. However, this year, instead of having a banquet at night, the members have planned initiation for 11:00 a. m, followed by a luncheon at noon.

Homecoming is a day to which all upperclassmen look forward, for it means the day when graduates return for a visit to their Alma Mater and to the friends whom they have made while at Mansfield. Even though the Freshmen will not know the graduates, they may have the opportunity to meet alumni of Mansfield who have left the campus to take their places in their chosen fields.

So once again may we say a most hearty welcome to our alumni.

PARENTS' DAY A SUCCESS

Another Parents' Day has come and gone at Mansfield State Teachers College. But this one was not an ordinary Parents' Day. It was the first post-war Parents' Day at M. S. T. C. for it brought the return of football. This theme was carried out in the badges, given to the parents.

Saturday, October 5, 1946, Mansfield students entertained their parents. They were guests on the campus for the afternoon and evening. In all, 166 parents received badges admitting them to the football game between Millersville S. T. C. and Mansfield S. T. C., the open house of the Arts Building, the Gymnasium, and Straughn Hall, the Tea in the Y.W.C.A. Rooms and the Artists Course in the evening.

A committee consisting of Loretta Briggs, Anna Mary Shultz, Don Razy, and Jack Wilcox, with Eleanor Mertz and Don Ayers as co-chairmen, planned the activities for the day, but the weatherman who brought a beautiful fall day to Mansfield's campus, was the successful host.

The club accepted six dates, read by President Simmons, which have been set aside on the social calendar for Secondary meetings.

All students enrolled in the secondary department, who are interested in following the vocation of education, are eligible for membership. With a bigger enrollment we can expect better club meetings. Watch for the date of the first regular meeting on your social calendar.

Pat: What's a fox?
Connie: I dunno, what?
Pat: A fox is a wolf who brings flowers.

WELCOME, FRESHMEN! YOUR TASK

The world today is in a turmoil! Even more so than it was during the black years of World War II. The majority of our American population does not realize this, and it is our job as future educators to teach this fact. It is no small job—it is a job of great importance. That is why we must take our college work seriously; that is why we must make ourselves the best educators possible. To do this we must take advantage of the many educational facilities and programs which Mansfield has to offer us. We are lucky to have the opportunity to use these, so let's do so to the last possible degree; let's show our great appreciation to those people who devote the greater share of their time in making these possible for us.

You, as Freshmen, have a wonderful field ahead of you. When the time comes for you to graduate, the world will be in great need of your services. That is why you must have a strong knowledge of the world in which you live. There are a great many things in college life which you must do to gain this knowledge for the future. Let me list these things in the order of their importance. Learn! You must study, and study hard! Put your all into your studies; keep them up to date, and don't wait 'til the day before examination to do your learning. Next—attend assembly! These assemblies aren't put on your schedule to be attended optionally. They are another class, put on your schedule to attend and gain that important fact of Life—Knowledge. Next—use the library! Read the books which are necessary for you to read in keeping your studies up to date; read the books on the rental shelf, but don't devote your entire spare time to these. Read the newspapers, and not just to be well informed on the outcome of B. O. Plenty and Gravel Gertie's troubles. The front page has interesting articles, too. Next—don't (above all things) skip classes! Why come to school at all if you're going to miss those important words of the instructors? They're there to teach us—let's take advantage of it. Then last, but by far no least—abide by the rules! Those rules are made to teach us to be law-abiding citizens. College life is a small scale facsimile of our great democracy. When we get out into the world "on our own" we will be helping to make laws—there is no better time than right now to abide by laws ourselves.

Initiation has come to an end! You've all done a great job in the task which was placed before you, and our only hope is that you've gained something from initiation. We want your spirits enhanced by this experience, and your sense of responsibility heightened. The last thing we would want is to have grudges held against those who initiated you, and a bitter feeling towards Mansfield in general. Initiation is just another "teacher"—and we "learn by experience," because "experience is the best teacher."

So here we are!—well into another school year! Work hard, but still have fun! May your year end successfully with no regrets as to the wise decision you've made to attend Mansfield State Teachers College.

E. E. J.

WELCOME ALL!

As is the usual custom, M. S. T. C. again lays out the welcome mat to its students, but this year the mat has been greatly enlarged! This year we welcome a larger student body than Mansfield has ever before experienced. Some of this vast number has come to us fresh from high school, some coming to college for the first time after spending years in the armed services; some of them are returning to Mansfield to resume their education, which was interrupted by the war. Then we can't forget those faithful Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors. To all these people may we say "Welcome," and may you have a most happy year at Mansfield.

—The Editors.

CHEERLEADERS

The new cheerleaders have been practicing up for the football season (some of them wonder if it's worth it; and from the way they're limping around it's little wonder). They have really been put through the ropes by their very able leaders, Miss Duff and Miss Diefenbach. As a change this year, there are 11 members on the cheerleading squad, eight "doing the honors" at one game. Those members are: Dick Almony, Jimmy Clancy, Ernie Codispotti, "Jeanie" Jones, Julie Hannold, Lois Boardman, Shirley Palmer, Lucille Lehner, Lois Byhem, Leatrice Cunningham, Eleanor Kneiss, and Alice Ramage. Everybody get behind your cheerleaders, and get the school spirit up!!! Let's display the best cheering section in M.S.T.C.'s history, shall we?

The cheerleaders are getting along for awhile (we hope) with uniforms of their own making—that is, black sweaters, skirts, red socks, and red Ms on the sweater. Sharp, but let's hope something can be done to make them look sharper!

Mr. Ledwith: Do you have the nerve to stand there and hint that I have only a few hairs on my head?

Jimmy: Well, you're the only man I know who uses a mirror with abuilt-in toupee.

ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

President James G. Morgan welcomed the largest freshman class ever to enter M.S.T.C. at the first assembly of the year. He was proud to be able to accommodate the freshmen who wish to enter Penn State but is unable to accommodate all of them at the present time. The rules and regulations of the Password were presented to the student body. Mr. Herbert Manser, Dean of Instruction, made several important announcements at the meeting.

An interesting Travel Talk movie was shown in assembly Tuesday, September 17. It was a very appropriate movie dealing with the current problem of the housing shortage.

Kurt Singer, radio analyst and author, spoke to the student body Thursday, September 26. Mr. Singer analyzed the present world conditions. His talk proved very interesting as well as educational.

For part of the program on Tuesday, October 1, the cheerleaders "did their stuff". One thing we'd like to say, though, the spirit was good, but it could have been better!

On Tuesday, October 8, the student body heard from those persons who own the title of president of a class, president of an organization, or editor of the Flashlight or Carontawan. This was the annual "Who's Who On The Campus" program.

Seldon: My victory garden is coming along right scrumptious. I'm raising mashed potatoes, you know!

Tom: Wait a minute, Sheldon. How do you raise mashed potatoes?

Seldon: Easy. You just take a regular potato and plant it with a hammer.

MAKE VESPER SERVICES SUCCESSFUL

This year, the number of College Community vesper services has been cut from seven to four. In previous years, each month a vesper service has been held in Straughn Hall. At these services speakers from churches in this area were guests of the college to talk to the students and townspeople. Special music was planned. Mr. Morgan gave a few remarks, and a local minister led the devotionals.

Sunday, October 6, at 4:30 p. m., in Straughn Hall, was the first of our college community vesper services for the school year 1946-47. The Reverend C. F. Berkheimer, Pine Street Methodist Church in Williamsport, was the speaker. Special music was planned for the program.

Since we are having only four services this year there should be no doubt in anyone's mind that she should attend each one. The enrollment of Mansfield this year should mean that Vesper Services will be attended by a large body. Don't miss Vesper Services. They are placed on our calendars to help us; to give us guidance and to give us spiritual enrichment, so everybody please attend them!

Dates for the other Vesper Services are November 10, February 2, and March 23.

Gordy: My latest invention is a piece of soap with a hole in the middle.

Jack: A cake of soap with a hole in the middle?

Gordy: Yep! With my soap people won't have to worry what to do with the little piece that's always left over.

MANSFIELD RETURNS TO FOOTBALL BY TROUNCING WYOMING SEMINARY 13-0

Magalski and Walsh Score for the Mountaineers

Resuming where he left off four years ago, "Bobbie" Magalski brought 5100 fans to their feet—with his 38-yard cut back run for the initial score of the first football game in four years when the "Mountaineers" defeated the Wyoming Seminary eleven, Saturday, Sept. 2, 1946, at Artillery Park, Wilkes-Barre.

This also was the debut of "Ted" Casey, famed Wilkes-Barre High School coach.

Sloughing around in a sea of mud Mansfield was unable to capitalize on several scoring opportunities—both fumbles—and time robbed the Mountaineers of several scores. At the close of the second period the ball rested on "Sem's" 1-yard line.

The defensive strength of Mansfield must be praised here—in the second period Klein intercepted a pass on his own 5-yard line and then running beautifully, cutting back across the field to Mansfield's 28-yard line, before being dropped from behind. Here, after a series of plays, Sem. moved to the 1-yd. line—Mansfield held stubbornly for four downs, taking away from "Sem" what appeared to all the fans a sure touchdown. Once again Magalski showed that he will be heard of plenty this season. When on a surprise pass from punt formation behind the goal, he scampered for fifty yards before being downed by the sole remaining defensive man—once again the wet field robbed Mansfield of another touchdown.

Not content with a score of 6-0, Mansfield started to move once again. After a series of plays, Dominic Mancia, a former Plains High star, rifled a perfect aerial to the out-stretched hands of End Joe Walsh in the end zone. Ralph Grant, the Mountaineers' famed quarterback, on a tricky quarterback sneak, went across for the extra point.

The surprising feature of the game was the tremendous amount of yardage gained via the aerial route. Mansfield completed 14 of 18 forward passes for a total of 209 yards.

Undoubtedly the score could have been much higher had Coach Casey used his first eleven throughout the game. Every available man who made the trip saw action; giving each an opportunity to show his ability. The work of Novak, Dunbar, Cunningham, Walsh and Johnson on the line was outstanding. In the backfield Grant and Mancia for passing; Magalski, Marra and Juzwiak for their running.

MANSFIELD AND BLOOMSBURG BATTLE TO A SCORELESS TIE

Mansfield Teachers College battled Bloomsburg State Teachers College to a scoreless tie before a crowd of 3000 spectators at the Bloomsburg High School stadium.

Mansfield started off on a bad break when Bloomsburg won the toss and elected to kick. On an on-side kick the Huskies started to move, reeling off the first of a series of first down, moving to the Red and Black 30-yard stripe. Maley, on an off-tackle cut-back, went for another first down. Here the defensive strength of the Mountaineers stiffened. Maley, once again on an off-tackle, went to the 15-yard, where Magalski dropped him hard. Another bad break occurred when Magalski, after dropping Maley, came up with an injury, causing him to leave the game temporarily. Bloomsburg once again threatened to score when they recovered a Mansfield fumble on the 20-yard line. Chick Marra's fine defensive work broke up this threat. Here Grant booted the Red and Black out of danger. Late in the second period, Gagalski returned in time to receive a Bloomsburg punt on his own 10 and a nice run back returned to the 40. A nice pass from Grant to Magalski was good for 20 yards. Here Bobbie almost broke into the clear.

Opening the second half Mansfield received the kick-off on the goal line and McEneny returned the ball to the 30, where the game seersawed back and forth with Grant again doing some nice passing.

Cheplick, playing his first game for Mansfield, set up a possible score when he broke through the Bloomsburg defense to block the Huskies' kick on the Mansfield 25-yard line. Magalski, carrying for Mansfield, went to the 15, only to have a 15-yard penalty wipe out his gain. Coming back strong, Grant heaved a perfect pass to Armezzani, good for 18 yards. On the next play, Bloomsburg broke up the scoring threat by intercepting one of the Mountaineers' passes.

Once again opportunity knocked for Mansfield when Novak, playing heads-up ball, recovered a fumble on the 20-yard line. Marra went for it and lateralled to Washleski, who went to the 3, only to have it called back. Marra again carried for 6. Once more a nice lateral to Washleski is ruled out. Grant elected to pass and a beautiful toss to Mancia, just out-of-Dominick's reach due to the angle, dropped harmlessly into the end zone. Mansfield elected to try a field goal, with Washleski kicking from a difficult angle. It went wide, ending the scoring threat.

Highlights of the game was the defensive work of Katusz and Novak.

MSTC ATHLETIC NEWS

When Captain Frank "Chick" Marra, of Mansfield State College football team, crashed 23 yards the Cortland team for a touchdown Saturday, it was history repeating itself. In 1940, when "Chick" was playing his first year for Mansfield, he duplicated his touchdown against the same team (Cortland), taking a pass and going 30 yards for the winning touchdown, going through the teachers. "Chick" played one of the best games of his career Saturday and is recognized as one of the outstanding backs in the college ranks today. "Chick" transferred from Scranton University in 1940, when he was varsity fullback and was considered one of the standouts of the Scranton team. He is now a senior, weighs 210 pounds, and expects to follow coaching as his career.

VICTORY ON A MUDDY GRID

In a steady, streaming downpour of rain that turned Smythe Park literally into a sea of mud, Coach Ed. "Ted" Casey's undefeated Mansfield eleven turned back a much-favored Cortland team by a score of 9 to 6.

Cortland scored in the early moments of the game. On the second play after the kick-off, Cortland's quarterback, McIntyre, heaved a long pass from his own 35-yd. line to Left End Shumacher, who romped through a surprised Mansfield team to the goal. Cortland's attempted kick for the extra point was ruled no good. Score, Cortland 6 Mansfield 0.

Four minutes later, on a recovered Cortland on the 26-yard line, Mansfield Quarterback Grant handed the ball to Fullback Marra who cut through his own tackle the distance to the goal. Dombrowski, center, kicked the extra point with Grant holding. Score, Mansfield 7, Cortland 6.

Mansfield controlled the ball most of the time for the next three quarters. Led by 5 foot 5, right halfback, Amendola, and strengthened by Left Half Kodish's kicking, Mansfield out-ran, out-gained and out-kicked the Cortland squad for the remainder of the game.

The final score for Mansfield came in the last minutes of playing time when Substitute Back Stevens of Cortland was caught behind his own goal line by Mansfield's Right Tackle Novak. With one minute to go, Grant of Mansfield intercepted a Cortland pass on the 16, and a play later when the game ended, Amendola had advanced it to the 14th. Final score, Mansfield 9, Cortland 6.

MANSFIELD ROLLS OVER MILLERSVILLE 14-7

Walsh and Randon Score for Mountaineers.

Uncorking a smashing ground and aerial offensive, Mansfield Teachers bowled over a fighting band of marauders from Millersville before a Parents' Day crowd of 2,500 sweltering gridiron fans at Smythe Park. The score was 14-7.

With Millersville tying the count at 7-7 going into the final minutes of play, the Mountaineers moved into a 7-point lead to climax an afternoon of thrills.

Mansfield scored its first touchdown early in the second period, when Cheplick, an alert center, recovered a Millersville fumble on the 15-yard line. Ray Kodish, a newcomer for coach Casey, brought the fans to their feet when he bucked through center for 12 yards. On the next attempt, Kodish carrying again went to the 1-foot line, where Randon on an off-tackle sliced through for the first tally. Dombrowski's kick was good for the extra point. Millersville, fighting mad, saw a chance to score in the final period, when Peters kicked to the Mansfield on-foot line. Bobkowski kicked to Reese standing on the Mountaineers 30, where he returned to the 20. Again Reese, on a nice fake, drew the whole Red and Black team over to the right side. He then on a nice cut-back galloped the remaining 20 yards to score. The kick was good, knotting the score 7-7.

Bobkowski and Walsh moved the ball 67 yards to score the final touchdown. After recovering the Millersville kick-off on the 5-yard line, Armezzani returned to the 33. Bobkowski scored a perfect aerial to Walsh, good for 20 yards. Once again Bobkowski to Walsh was good on an interference play. Bobkowski, sensing a sure received in Walsh, threw another to Joe, making it good on the 20. Getting perfect blocking, Jack Bobkowski threw a long pass to Walsh once again on Millersville's goal line, good for the score. Lombrowski again kicked the extra point, making it 14-7.

The Mountaineers completely outplayed Millersville Teachers in every department. A few costly fumbles robbed the Red and Black of at least two more touchdowns.

The passing accuracy of Bobkowski was outstanding. He completed 6 out of 9 for a total distance of 110 yards. Here also credit must be given to end Joe Walsh for his recovering ability. Without doubt Joe is one of the finest ends to "hit the campus" here at Mansfield. The running of Kodish and Armezzani was spectacular, and the line credit goes to Novak, Cunningham and Dombrowski.

CAPTAIN "BOBBIE" MAGALSKI

Bobbie returns to Mansfield to complete his education where he left off four years ago to enter the Armed Forces. Bobbie is the big ground gainer of this and the former M. S. T. C. elevens. Without a doubt, Bobbie is one of the greatest ball carriers which has "hit" our campus. A constant threat to any opposing squad. Magalski gained valuable experience while playing in the Armed Forces, playing on the Gudiport Army Air Field eleven, Gulfport, Miss., in 1944 the A.T.C. Rockets in 1946. While with the A.T.C. eleven, Magalski played with many former all-Americans, which goes to prove that Bobbie knows how to play football. He hails from Larksville, Penna. Bobbie graduates in January, 1947. He is married and has a baby girl one month old.

JUST STUFF

Here we are again—only this time we're talking to more people, even men—seems super, too! Poor Seniors, everyone thinks they're Frosh; how dignified they felt in Straughn Hall when Miss Wasley asked them to stand up! Rs, yes! to be a Senior. . . . Doesn't the dining room look wonderful at dinner? Men make such a wonderful improvement in the scenery, don't you think? . . . Hey, Chickie, how 'bout this Mut and Jeff stuff, is it really true? . . . Congrats to all who come back with diamonds and wedding rings. . . . May you all have a very happy life. . . . I've heard it said that some of the Seniors, and even Juniors are planning on being Old Maids, might be something in that.

Strange, but a familiar face looks wonderful anymore. . . . You feel like falling all over people you know. . . . Jeanie, what's the idea of the new parking place for the elevator? The cellar's a long way down. . . . Anyone know the identity of the following persons? Myrtle, Clara, Fanny, Nelly and Maude? Maybe, they're ex-convicts, who knows? . . . Congratulations to Jan and Al. Cute couple.

Welcome, Miss Reed! We're going to be as good as possible so you'll like us. . . . We're all terribly modest. . . . The first sing was fun wasn't it? . . . Jack and B. J. sure have "That Look" in their eyes. . . . The Frosh might have been homesick but then what about the upperclassmen? They had the bug to! Isn't it wonderful? The D.S. is going to be enlarged—What a fortune they'll make. . . . Pat and Connie—still going strong. Hey, Bruce, how many on each side now? You look so-o-o cute with a mustache—The New York Times "Course" is still popular as ever. Why do they call her "Zip" Goodall? "R. . . G." are cute initials. Farewell to the nurses. . . . Ta-Ta! Hey! Duffy, do you like steak? Yum. yum! . . . Cheerleaders are doing O. K. for themselves, too. . . . if only they had new uniforms. Sure seems good to see some fellows out there for a change, good for the super football team of ours, huh? Miss Wasley, what do you mean, so many bags are coming to Mansfield now? Lots of trunks, too!

Frosh initiation went off okay. Please, Frosh, speak to your upperclassmates when you met them. Frosh—one of the unwritten laws on our campus is of RESPECT for upperclassmen—we don't go around telling them "to pipe down." Really, must we come to hall parties in dresses and take our books to meals with us.

Say, how do you like Wellington's new permanent? How about this Wilcox-Oakey affair? Oh, say, fellows, third floor North Hall is reserved for girls only—How about giving the faculty their old corner in the first floor well? We don't like traditions broken in three short

JOTTINGS OF A COUNCIL MEMBER

September 8, 1946.

Salutations Gang!!

Long Time No See, but don't let it bother you. . . . The meeting of the Council was called to order by the President, Mr. Weed (who I must say looked as if he had enjoyed his summer) . . . Vicky still can't go into a room and stay there. She ran in and out of the room a dozen times before she could tear herself away from whoever it was out there in the hall. . . . All were present and were introduced to Dean of Men Long. . . . Discussion of registration was carried on with much animation. . . . Suckers, weren't we? . . . "D" Thomas rep. (I mean represented) the Men's Dorm Council. . . . Plans were made to entertain the Freshmen during "Frosh" week.

Meeting adjourned.

"JASPER."

September 15, 1946.

Meeting called to order by President "Chuck" . . . (We only waited half an hour for Wellington and Dean Long. . . . Miss Wasley was on time) . . . Maybelle Woodin represented the Sophomore class and read the plans for Freshmen initiation. . . . I like GREEN regardless of what color it is. . . . The only intelligent thing that "Jeanie" Jones said was "Ah, Nuts to you." . . . Harold B. was his flattering self. . . . The calendar for the month of October was planned and committees appointed for "Parents' Day" and "Homecoming". . . . Something else happened, too, but I'm not gonna tell!

Meeting adjourned.

JASPER.

P.S. If this makes any cents it ain't my fault.

weeks. . . . The rumor is around that Schmidt has gone all out for the Music Department. We sure do miss that trumpet and clarinet couple. Onion parties are the vogue again. How about cutting down the No. of B.T.O.S. and E.B.S. on campus? High marks. . . . lots of notes in classes.

Harold: You can't expect me to believe that buses are so crowded people are always standing on your feet.

Don: Well, boy, I didn't always wear open-toe shoes.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING

COLLEGE PLAYERS

The College Players, with Miss Allen as adviser, has completed its analysis of prospective members, and has begun rehearsals for the December play. The winter presentation will be "Ramshackle Inn", a mystery, which is bound to have you biting your nails, and balancing your gleutius maximus on the seat's edge. Friday, December 13, is the big day, so you will want to check that date on the calendar. Murder, mystery, on Friday, the thirteenth, should be most effective!

The student directors are Barbara Watkins, Shirley Dutcher, Helen Smith, Rena Carlson, Eugenia Pior-etta, and Myrtle Berguson. Fourteen people from the eighty club members have been chosen for the parts in next month's play. Bill Owens will take the part of Mr. Temple, while Gordon Secor amuses the audience by enacting The Commodore. D. Ayres will be Bill, H. Hissiam, Mary, and Eleanor Jones, Joyce. Other people about the campus whom you should know are Gene Maxwell, Tom McGraw, who will portray Dr. Russel, and Bill Bradshaw, Constable Small. The Arbuthnot and Fred Porter will be Phil Dewey, and Alice's part belongs to Lois Slusser. When we include Lois Byham, Yvonne Lane and Paul Gaver ("Cris" to you), the cast is complete, and very promising.

The spring production will be "Stardust". It is to be given in April. The club's president, Sue Smythe, will exhibit her fine talent in this presentation.

We sincerely hope that you are giving credit to this persevering group of students, and will back them in their attempts to furnish M.S.T.C. with fine entertainment and relaxation.

"FRATERNALLY YOURS"

Brothers of "Phi Sig" Hold Luncheon.

The "Phi Sig" members of M. S. T. C. welcomed home their fraternity brothers on Homecoming Day, by preparing and inviting them to a fraternity luncheon held in the South Hall "frat room" after the victorious football game. An hour of fellowship was greatly enjoyed and Phi Sigma Pi was happy to welcome back such brethren as "Art" Seymour, Basil Harris, Jack Snyder, Leo McDonald, "Del" Blackwell, Francis Roupp, "Lew" Van Gorder and others.

At present the fraternity is contemplating the fulfillment of future plans. Two brothers, Bill Perkins and Dan Thomas, have been recently chosen as delegates to represent Theta Chapter of Phi Sigma Pi at a fraternity conference held in Washington, D. C., on Saturday, November 23.

VESPER SERVICE

The second College Community Vesper Service of the year was held November 10th at four-thirty p.m. in Straughn Hall. The Reverend Lorimus Crippen, minister of the First Baptist Church at Corning, N. Y., delivered the sermon. He was introduced by the Rev. Mr. Griffiths of the local Baptist Church. The Freshman Chorus under the direction of Mr. Schroer sang "O Gladsome Light" by Archangelsky. Everyone enjoyed the program very much, and are looking forward to further Vesper Services!

"Doin' What Comes Natch-er-ly"

"THINGS CLOSE TO OUR HEARTS"

Some people think that ours is a generation of juke boxes, and shallow thoughts. Guess we really give them that impression because we scarcely mention the things really close to our hearts. We're afraid of being "corny".

Here we are entering the Thanksgiving Season—and our general conversation has to do with the exclamations of gladness over the fact that the mid-semester tests have passed into history, the football team is putting us on the map, who's dating who at the Thanksgiving dance, how long the vacation is and what movie is playing now? Yes, some people might get the impression that our thoughts go no deeper than the bottom of the glass at the Dairy Store.

But they're wrong. Each one of us will admit that Thanksgiving means much more to us than just a day of celebration and vacation. We have such an awful lot to be thankful for—our freedom, the peace that came so dearly, the fact that in America opportunity is a reality and that we can make something of it—and the right to answer the call of the church bells. Who am I to say—think of all the things with which we are blessed that other nations must go without—others among us know so much better than I how true this is.

Yes, this peaceful Thanksgiving you'll see us in Church giving our thanks from the heart to Him who knows the sincerity with which it is given.

RUTH IZER,

President Woman's Dormitory Council.

BASKETBALL GETS UNDERWAY FOR 1946-1947

Over Half a Hundred Candidates Report for Early Practice.

Mansfield State Teachers College will this year be represented by one, if not the strongest, quintet in her history. This year should mark a new era in the field of sports for the Mountaineers!

After completion of a good year in football, the Red and Blacks will be out to cop State honors among the hoopsters.

Without a doubt most schools will be greatly strengthened by the returns of many veterans. The fans will be enjoying for the first time many years, a real live game of basketball.

Athletic Director Decker and Coach Casey, are busy each afternoon putting their charges through stiff workouts. Much interest has been shown on the part of the entire school, by the large number of specatators watching the daily drills.

STUDENT RECITAL—NOV. 24TH

The students of the Music Department gave the other students of M.S.T.C. a real "send-off" with their recital which was held on November twenty-fourth in the Y. W. C. A. rooms.

Miss Atwater introduced the program which began at two p.m. Miss Barbara Dimon, sophomore, played Mozart's "Fantasia in D minor" and Gloria Razez, a Senior, played Debussy's "The Engulfed Cathedral." Both girls are students of Mr. Kohler. Curtis Acker played a cornet solo entitled "Bride of the Waves" by Herbert Clark. Miss Bettejo Goodall accompanied an instrumental trio, and cello and violin soloists, pupils of Mr. Heim. Two vocal solos were offered by students of Mr. Schroer and Mrs. Lewis.

The large attendance of both faculty and students shows that the college has taken a real interest in our recitals and also encourages those music students who shall in future recitals display their talents.

LAMBDA MU INITIATES THREE FACULTY MEMBERS

Members of the Lambda Mu Sorority initiated Miss Borky, Mrs. Heim, and Mrs. Lewis into their sisterhood on Saturday, October 28. The formal initiation was held in the sorority rooms of North Hall at 11 o'clock a. m.

Following the initiation, a luncheon was held in honor of the new members. Each table was cleverly arrayed in Hallowe'en decorations.

Guests of the sorority included: Marion Eastman, Betty Shields, Lillian Brace Bowser, Terry Copper-smith, Eleanor Bryan, Doris Maynard, Mary Jo Stuart, Mary Jane Peters, and Patricia James.

NOVEMBER ASSEMBLIES

All out for assembly! This must have been the campus motto, because there was a real good turnout for the month of November. But why not? With such good subject matter as—"Music by the Esquires" (we hated to leave after the hour flew by!). Ben Ferrier, Explorer, and the Program by the Music Education Department.

Everyone sat glued to the seat while Mr. Ferrier took us with him on some of his exploits.

The Esquires are certainly "razz-ma-tazz" this year! When they started out, old Straughn Hall really got a work-out from the listening audience who were trying out various dance routines while sitting (?) in their seats.

The Music Education Department also did themselves justice. We certainly have a lot of talent on campus.

Let's hope that next month's assembly programs are as interesting and attention holding.

VETS EXCEL

Lawrence, Kans. (I.P.)—Everybody said veterans did better work than non veteran students, but Dean J. O. Jones of the School of Engineering at the University of Kansas wondered if, just like the weather, people were talking about it and never did anything about it.

A survey of the grade point averages of 990 veteran and non-veteran students in the school of Engineering was made. The results indicate that the returning veterans are far ahead of the non-veterans in the race for academic achievement. It appeared as follows:

Mean grade point average:	Non-Vet.	Vets.
Freshmen	1.00	1.27
Sophomores	1.21	1.33
Juniors	1.35	1.42
Seniors	1.38	1.48
Percentage number of students with gr. pt. av. greater than 2.00:
Freshmen	10.4	19.2
Sophomores	10.9	12.1
Juniors	14.8	15.5
Seniors	2.7	18.7
Percentage number of students with gr. pt. av. less than 1.00:
Freshmen	47.8	32.3
Sophomores	37.0	30.3
Juniors	25.7	22.9
Seniors	18.9	12.5

SCHOOL SPIRIT

Where's our school spirit these days? There have been so many comments about our school spirit lately that we felt there should be something mentioned about it to you, as a student body.

In this college life of ours, everything is "give and take," and in more instances than one—it is give! But a lot of us are afraid to give too much—we'd rather take! That is hardly the spirit which we should have in any phase of life. We should "step up to the front and offer our services gladly."

There are four types of persons who go to make up this thing called "School Spirit"—1. The person who gladly gives anything which he has to offer. 2. The person who gives, but then says to his friends, "Well, I did this, and I think someone else should do a little something." 3. The person who just doesn't care—won't offer his services, and just sits back and lets things slip by. 4. The person who doesn't offer his services and then stands up with his complaints about things not getting done.

Which type are you?

MUSIC—I HEAR MELODY

But do we hear melody? Do we hear what we would like to hear at our record dances? That's up to you students—want some new records—have any to donate?—breakage fee is covered by Student Council. How about adding some small change to our record box. We won't miss a little money. Near our donation record box we'll have a place to sign for "your favorite record." Want some new music—here's your chance. Fill up our record box at entrance to Student Center. Student Council has suggested these ideas; they are waiting for your reaction's and opinions.

"MEN BEHIND THE TEAM"

Much credit for the present undefeated Mansfield State Teachers college eleven must be given to two of our assistant coaches—Dr. W. Nosal and Mr. E. Percy, both of whom came here rich in the knowledge of football. Through their unceasing efforts a Stainlost line has been developed, and proven.

Dr. Nosal comes to us from California S. T. C., where he taught and coached their basketball team. Previous to this Dr. Nosal attended Albright College and Indiana S. T. C., where he played on both teams. In 1939 he captained one on Indiana's great elevens. Dr. Nosal also coached at several high schools and finally attended Duke University and received his M. A. and Ed. D. from George Washington University.

Mr. E. Percy played his college football at Salem College, Salem, West Virginia, where he was one of a few four-letter men. His coaching experiences deal also in football and basketball. While down south he coached in Bristol, West Virginia, for two years and moving north, located in Plainfield, N. J., where he coached the line for a period of six years, later moving to Canisio, N. Y., where he developed one of the finest teams in the New York State Basketball Section Five.

THANKSGIVING FESTIVITIES

This year Thanksgiving is really a day for giving thanks. We, as students here at M. S. T. C., have many special reasons for being grateful. We have most of our former students, temporarily in the service of Uncle Sam, back with us. We have the best football team of many a year and we have promise of an all star basketball team.

Thanksgiving was celebrated in all its festivity on Nov. 26 for which a fine program was planned. This program was in the hands of a very capable committee, consisting of Bettejo Goodall, Elizabeth Schmidt, Marian Curtis, Jack Kerrigan and LaVerne Thornton. The activities scheduled were: a semi-formal dinner by candlelight at 6 p. m. The tables were decorated in the true spirit of Thanksgiving and the Madrigals furnished dinner music. Everyone got a chance to join in the festivities by participating in the group singing. Our only regret was that due to the crowded condition of the dining room the day students were unable to attend.

Following the dinner an evening of dancing, with music by the school orchestra, the Esquires, was enjoyed.

Ray K.—I'm tryin' to get a job as a pilot. Yesterday they took me up for a test ride, and as soon as the plane began to move my face got all red.

Scared, huh?

Ray K.—Nope, my suspenders got caught in the propeller!

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Although this doesn't concern me directly, (for I was always too weak and puny to ever win a high school letter anyway), it concerns me indirectly because it involves such a large proportion of the student body, not only the present one, but all the ones which will comprise Mansfield in the years to come. Shall we allow a single organization in this democratic school of Mansfield to dictate the rules of dress to the remainder of the school body?

I am only one of the many individuals who can't understand the motives behind the "M-Cub's" propositions, which was taken before the Student Council, for consideration, in requesting that a ruling be made to forbid the wearing of numerals and letters other than those issued by the "M-Club". Don't get the idea that I am against the "M-Club" as an organization. I believe that the fellows who become members deserve every ounce of glory that is due them (especially after such a triumphant football season).

Just what will the "M-Club" receive by this action? Are they afraid that with the keen competition that now exists on campus that some former high school star will take away their best girl? Must a fellow who has worked hard to earn his letter put it away in mothballs just to satisfy the selfish desires of a few individuals? Just because an individual feels proud of wearing a letter from his high school alma mater doesn't detract in the least from his feeling toward his college. (Have they forgotten the case of divided loyalty of a child for both his mother and father?) If one will go to any college in the United States, I am sure he will find letters covering the alphabet from A to Z. That has been my experience with quite a number.

If the Student Council, the purpose of which is to be concerned with the welfare of the student body as a whole, passes such a law restricting the wearing of letters, then it is restricting the privilege of the majority and catering to the whims of a few.

—A Student.

JUST STUFF

Boy, do we like reindeer sweaters. . . . How about the big write-up for our famous football team in the Philadelphia Inquirer? Nice going team . . . Has anyone seen Casanova Brown? . . . Why do people go to their Monday classes on Tuesday? Queer world. What's the new slogan, "Co-operate and Graduate?" Sounds interesting. Have any dry cleaning, kids?—just inquire of Whitney-Kitchen, Inc. So the elevator goes to 7th now, Huh Lou? Let's not steal the cellar's business. Why all the stiff necks, girls? Glenn and Chick—hmm, doesn't sound good together. "Uncle John" seems to be a constant companion of many—from "Uncle Sam" to "Uncle John". Lots of apples this year, Both polished and unpolished. We hear Gordie Secor is on the prowl for empty milk bottles—we wonder why. How are the Health Classes coming, Paul? We hear there is a new method for ignoring pie beds—just jam your feet through the sheets. Lost—one week-end. How about these newly wedded waiters? (Oh, Yeah!) And what does a college student (man or woman) wear to the Artist Course programs on campus? Certainly not sport clothes, but it seems that some people are more comfortable that way—seems a shame!

Jean—Got paste all over me, 'cause I just finished pastin' newspapers up on my ceilin'.

Jan—Pasting newspapers on your ceiling?

Jean—Yep, I like to read while I'm gargling.

Eddie F.—I've had such bad dreams that I've been taking pills. One night I took a red pill—next night I took a green one—last night I took a purple one.

George—Did that put an end to your nightmares?

Eddie F.—Nope, but now I see my dreams in technicolor.

QUESTIONS-AIRED

If someone came up to you and asked what was your idea of spending a perfect evening, how would you answer? You have a great leeway, but stop a moment and think! Such is the question asked several students on campus, and what answers!

For instance: "When the deep purple falls," "Give me the night and the music," (Elizabeth Schmidt) or "to have the complete freedom to be myself; or if you would have it explicitly, to sip tea in a graveyard on a night filled with clouds and rain." (Russel Darling). Really, Rus! Paul Gaver prefers "dining at the 21 Club, followed by escorting his favorite blond to the latest musical, and for a windup, a ferryboat ride with concertinas and dancing," and Loretta Briggs just wants "music a moon and a MAN and me," Great minds run in the same paths, they say! But wait, what's this? Eugene Rehner chooses "lounging in a nice soft chair, just reading a good book and listening to some classical music, stopping only for a snack of his mother's cooking." James Ackman likes "sitting at home playing bridge and enjoying home life at its best." Glad to see we have two sensible fellows here. Then there are the two anonymous fellows (R. F. and B. T.) who would start the evening with a big steak plus the trimmings, a half hour nap, a best seller, a record player and, if possible, a gorgeous girl. Wellington's ideal evening was spent working with Lois on this question. That must have been perfect. "Low music, a good book, and New Albany makes any evening perfect according to Minnie Bender. (Why the book, Minnie?) Joe Walsh would spend his evening "Going out with a group of fellows, when anything goes, kidding, singing, and not worrying about times and no girls to bother anyone." Now, there's a sensible person—oops, what am I saying. Girls can play that game, too, or at least Ellen Houser thinks so—"hen parties and plenty of food." Then there's economical Leatrice Cunningham who is satisfied with a six cent dish of ice cream and a bag of peanuts. "A '46 convertible in red, with a full moon shining overhead, and a man who's mine, all make an evening fine" with Arlene Conner. Aha, a poet in our midst. "Chick" Cichocki thinks a perfect evening would be watching the French fleet with the right one!

Now how about your idea of spending a perfect evening?

HOMEMAKING NEWS

The Omicron Gamma Pi held its first formal meeting in the "Y" rooms October 9, 1946, at which time forty-one girls were initiated into the organization. Omicron's next meeting will be held November 13 at which time Dr. Beyer will speak.

Do you know that those seniors are always doing the cutest little things, such as, reading nursery stories? The other day "George Izer" was reading a story concerning a balloon and guess what? "Schmidt", who was acting as a small child would in a nursery, informed us she had red and blue balloons. Perhaps that accounts for Miss Schmidt's loss of voice last week. Maybe she used all her wind to blow up balloons?

Well, the Sophomores are going in for big business serving turkey roasts. There is a rumor that they are going to serve the dinner by candle-light in order that the feathers will not be too visible. Do you know why the sophomore girls were quite popular several weeks ago. Could it be those small pies they baked?

Lost! Somewhere in the nutrition lab—a white rat. Finder please return to empty cage. Such careless juniors! I certainly hope these girls will not starve the junior high school boys and girls as they did those poor rats. On Monday, D. Collins, D. Dunlap, D. Wilson, A. Ramage, and B. Bohlayer will serve lunch in the cafeteria at junior high school.

"JUST CHECKING"

Howard W. had a little spill the other nite and he wasn't under the influence either. Says he missed a total of 5 out of the 20 steps in front of the S. C. We'd all like to see it done again, "Howie". Maybe this is the short cut we've been looking for.

Gordon S. and his gang, including "Skip" and "Chuck" are still cashing in on their "rep" as Mountaineers in the Dickinson game. In fact, you can get almost any kind of misleading "info" from old "granpappy" G. S. about "hillbilly" traditions. He knows "em" all.

Last Saturday's game saw the birth of a Bill Stern on M. S. T. C.'s campus, name of Ben Moskow. Nice going Ben. I'm sure Miss Allen will let you sleep in class from now on.

An ambition realized. Bill N. managed to get home to vote the other week. He's one guy who is awfully interested in elections. Wonder why?

These week-end dances are sure rough on a certain Bud. We don't know why, but he just can't seem to click with any of these other campus "chicks" after dancing with H. H.

The worried expression on Joe M's face gives us an idea that Miss Murphy is cooking up another Art test. Could be!

A couple of fellas went down to see Penn State trounce the heads off of Temple one week-end. Heard there was some sort of a big reunion going on down there. Wonder what they brought back in exchange for that "precious cargo."

This issue of the "Flashlight" with the regulations concerning the wearing of letters other than those awarded to our "Alma Mater" is going to hit a certain R. W. awfully hard. Poor guy, he has a fortune invested in jackets.

All must be going well in "Intermediate French". There are no more rumors about Miss Drum's getting married this semester.

It hasn't been around very much, but we've got a celebrity on campus. He goes by the name of "Nails", plays wicked football, too. It's a shame the season is almost over because maybe Mr. Casey could find a spot for him—on the bench.

The Science Department still maintains that the laws of gravity are intact, but we have reason to doubt this. Good reason, too. Just what keeps the pipe of Mansfield's foremost opponent on Spanish, one "Senior Chris" to be exact, to high in the air?

Has anyone seen a brand new Chevrolet convertible around? Just checking . . . !

In case anyone happens to miss the Sunday comics, the Major Hoople section in particular, there is a man on campus who can brush you up in "jig time". Place—Dining Hall Time—Monday morning, breakfast on a half dozen "SOFT boiled eggs."

Pull your ears in fellas, here come the hats. We have an idea that one "wheelbarrow riding" Secor has a lot of stock in a local hat company. Ever since he came out with that dilapidated rain catcher he has, it's been the style around these parts.

"Ramshackle Inn," boy what a play it's going to be!

Excerpt Leave this town? Why where else can a girl make $5000 in one nite?

If anybody wants to know why they lost their money on the "Irish" last Saturday, just ask Al. Yep, that's right, what they needed was a Cheplick.

Just a word in parting: Brothers!

You either wear a uniform or You'll never be that certain way, About any of our campus "chicks", That's all I have to say.

What happened, Bill? We haven't heard you say you were "homesick" for quite a while now.

Who is the most popular woman on our campus? Ah yes, "BRFSK"? "Harumph" and all that stuff, it's Lena, the Hyena, lucky gal!

Mountaineers Are Football Champs!

MOUNTAINEERS CONTINUE TO ROLL

Defeat Edinboro Teachers 51-7

Scoring almost at will the Mansfield State Teachers defeated an inferior Edinboro eleven on Saturday, November 2, 1946, by a one-sided score of 51-7.

Ray Kodish in the first period scored from the 3-yard line. Then again Kodish had a hand in the Mountaineers' second tally, when he threw a 30-yard pass to End Joe Walsh. Azain, on a beautiful off-tackle run, went 19 yards for the third touchdown. Then in rapid fire succession Ralph Grant tossed a quick pass to Tony Armendola for the fourth tally. McEneny, faking to Armendola, quickly pivoted and tossed another pass to End Joe Walsh for the Mountaineers' fifth score. Ted Randon, replacing Magalski, threw a 15-yard pass to Joe Walsh for the sixth pointer.

Coming back after the half-time intermission, the Red and Black received the kick-off and co-Captain Bobbie Magalski twisted and worked his way through the entire Edinboro eleven for 68 yards. At least seven Edinboro men had a shot at Bobbie. Raykowitz scored the nightcap when, after Magdelinskas intercepted on the Mansfield 30-yard line and returned the ball to the Edinboro 6-yard line. Here Raykowitz, after three tries, went over.

Jackie Dunbar, on the guard, pulling out and getting the ball from the quarterback went over for the extra point. Dombrowski's kick split the bars.

Edinboro's tally came after a bad decision giving them the ball on the 10-yard line, where they scored four plays later. The kick was good.

Highlights of the Game

The entire Mansfield squad for its fine play. The ball running of Armendola, Magalski, Marra. The outstanding blocking of Kodish, the passing of Grant, and the work of Walsh. The fine defensive work of Novak, Katucz, Cheplick and Bowman.

MANSFIELD TROUNCES DICKINSON IN HOME-COMING DAY GAME

In their sixth game of the season, Mansfield's undefeated eleven, completely and decisively defeated the Dickinson Junior College team from Williamsport, Pa., Saturday, October 26, 1946, before a Homecoming Day crowd of 3,000 fans, to the score of 33-6.

Practically all the Mansfield backfield shared in the scoring. The Red and Blacks first score came in the opening play of the second quarter, when co-Captain Marra went off tackle to score. Dombrowski's kick for conversion was good.

An ambitious "Dickinson" team retaliated within the next three minutes. Schultz received the Mansfield kick-off on his own 5-yard line and raced down the far side lines for 75 yards before Armendola caught him on the Mansfield 20-yard line. After 3 attempts to crack the forward wall of a stubborn Mansfield eleven, Schultz threw a fluke pass to Stacy standing for the only Dickinson score. Mansfield's second score came when on a 35-yard pass from Chet Washewski to End Joe Walsh, Joe scored standing up. Once again Dombrowski's kick was good. Score Mansfield 14, Dickinson 6. Here Armendola on an off-tackle cut back raced 4-yards to score, only to have a clipping penalty nullify his brilliant run-back. On the very next play Ralph Grant flipped a 30-yard pass to End Bill Johnson, who crossed over for the Red and Blacks third score. Dombrowski's kick was low. Score: Mansfield 20, Dickinson 6.

Opening the second half, co-Captain Bobbie Magalski returned the kick-off from his own 10 to the Dickinson 4-yard line. On a

CO-CAPTAIN FRANK "CHICK" MARRA

"Chick" returned to Mansfield in January, 1946, after spending 5½ years in the Armed Services. "Chick" is one of the best fullbacks on this or any previous Mansfield eleven. His offensive play has been an important cog in the current Mountaineers' standing. Whenever a few yards are needed, one can usually count on "Chick" to come through. Marra has picked up plenty of yardage for the Red and Blacks. On the defense he is a great backer up.

"Chick" completed his first two years playing on the University of Scranton's undefeated eleven in 1938-39. He also played here for the Mountaineers in 1940.

Frank hails from Dickinson City, Penna. He is married and the proud father of an 18-month-old girl. "Chick" will graduate in May, 1947.

tricky pass from Grant to Walsh and then a lateral to Kodish good for the fourth Mansfield touchdown. The conversion was good. Score, Mansfield 27, Dickinson 6.

After kicking off to Dickinson Cheplick recovered on the 18-yard line. Jack Bobkowski passed to Armendola for 80 yards and Armendola scored Mansfield's final touchdown, making the final score 33-6.

It seemed as though the Red and Blacks could score at will. Every available man saw action. To point out any particular stars of the game would do injustice to the whole Mansfield squad.

MANSFIELD DEFEATS KUTZTOWN TEACHERS IN CONFERENCE GAME

Harrington and Walsh Score for Red and Blacks.

Playing their third conference game in the Pennsylvania State Teachers College Conference, the Mansfield Mountaineers defeated the Kutztown Teachers, 14-0, on Saturday, October 12, 1946, at the Kutztown Stadium before a crowd of 2,500 spectators.

Mansfield scored in the first quarter when Ray Kodish intercepted a Kutztown pass on the Orange and Blacks 40-yard line. On the next play Frank Marra reeled off 20 yards; halting the ground attack of Mansfield temporarily. Captain Bobbie Magalski, on a nice fake, threw a 20-yard pass to End Joe Harrington, standing in the end zone, for the first score. Tony Dombrowski's kick split the bar for the bonus point.

Mansfield's other score came in the final period when Joe Katucz intercepted a Kutztown pass on the 25-yard line. Bobkowski on excellent passes on the next play, heaved a perfect aerial to End Joe Walsh for the Mountaineers' second score. Again Tony Dombrowski's kick was perfect. In the closing minutes of the final period Mansfield was once again knocking on the touchdown door when Jack Bobkowski intercepted one of McNabb's aeriels.

Some of the Highlights of the Game

Marras' broken field running, when "Chick" galloped for 50 yards, only to be brought down on the 40-yard Kutztown line, from his own 10. The passing of Grant, Magalski and Bobkowski. The fine defensive stand of the entire team.

MOUNTAINEERS MAKE STRONG COMEBACK TO DEFEAT INDIANA—25-13

Amendola and Kodish Star for Red and Black.

Displaying true championship form, the unbeaten Mansfield Teachers defeated a strong band of Indians from I. S. T. C., 25-13, before a near capacity crowd at Smythe Park.

After an early break which set up the first Indiana score, the Mountaineers came back with a quick touchdown, when Tony Amendola, on a pass from Ray Kodish, went over for the first Mansfield score. Once again Indiana jumped into the lead when a long pass set up their second score. After scoring the second touchdown, the Indians were never again in the ball game.

Coming back strong in the second half the Red and Black started moving forward when a 20-yard pass from Kodish to Amendola was successful for the second Mansfield score. Dombrowski's kick split the bars.

After several first downs in succession bringing the ball from mid-field to the 10-yard strip, Ray Kodish, on a fake off to the weak side, cut back over his own strong side and scored standing up.

Armendola returned put 70 yards to score, taking the ball on his own 30-yard line. Tony Amendola showing remarkable running ability scampered along the side lines for 70 yard to score the nightcap. Excellent blocking on the part of Ray Kodish made this run more spectacular.

A salute to the entire squad for playing one of its greatest games in this season.

MSTC ATHLETIC NEWS

(K. F. Van Norman)

By winning the Lock Haven game Saturday, this year's varsity joins the ranks of former unbeaten and championship teams of the college as listed herewith: 1896, 1897, 1900, 1901, 1938. The 1914 team was defeated in one contest, but won the state championship by defeating Indiana 21 to 0, as did also the 1906 team which lost to Bucknell only. Mansfield, all its fans contend, is now ready to take its old place as the leading Teachers College team in the East and to again meet some of the strong liberal arts colleges.

Beginning in 1898, with the weakest team of the "nineties", Mansfield played both University of Pennsylvania and Cornell and in 1899 was played the first game with Penn State.

In 1902 the first of the Alfred University series was played and continued until 1922, Mansfield winning the majority of the contests.

In 1905 the series with Bucknell was started and during the years from this time until 1926, the following college teams were played: Syracuse, University of Scranton, University of Buffalo, St. Bonaventure, Colgate and Susquehanna.

Having seen all the Mansfield teams in action, I wish to again say that I believe this year's team is the best ever developed here. In numbers, the squad far surpassed any of our previous years, and there were more outstanding performers.

Coach Casey and his assistants did a wonderful job and I believe we are on the beginning of a great revival of sports at the college.

Much has been written and said about the Lock Haven game, but I believe that any team that can come from behind, as Mansfield did in the second quarter, take the lead and hold it for the remainder of the game, was not outplayed.

Anyone familiar with the Notre Dame system, which Coach Casey uses, knows that his teams are offensive teams and the gaining of first down by opponents means nothing. The result at the end of the game is the true value of a team's ability as the so-called breaks of any game are made by the teams themselves.

Mansfield this season has won four games coming from behind, which is the acid test of any team.

MANSFIELD TEACHERS BID FOR MYTHICAL TITLE

Defeat L.H.S.T.C.—Score 14-13. Kodish and Johnson Score for Red and Black. Dombrowski's Kicking Proves Decisive Point.

Once again the M. S. T. C. bids for the mythical Teachers College Conference title by defeating Lock Haven State Teachers College, in a game played at Lock Haven Saturday afternoon, Nov. 16.

Encountering its strongest opponent in six conference games, the Red and Black emerged from one of its greatest triumphs, Lock Haven having several scoring opportunities snatched from its midst, when a stubborn Mansfield eleven rose to great heights to keep its record clean. Probably the greatest defensive stand of the victorious Mountaineers came in the fourth quarter when the Bald Eagles had the ball resting on the Red and Black two-yard line and first down coming up. Here the Mountaineers' defense dug in deep and on the first running play hit the Lock Haven ball carrier hard, forcing him to fumble, and the entire Red and Black forward line dove on the brown oval. Once again Ray Kodish kicked the Mansfield eleven out of a deep hole.

Ralph Grant's passing was the decisive factor in our winning, when he threw two beautiful touchdown passes, one to End Bill Johnson in the second quarter and finally to Ray Kodish, who made one of the most amazing catches in the entire season, leaping high into the air among a host of Lock Haven defenders. Ray came down with the ball firmly in his grasp.

Here credit must be given to Lang Dombrowski's perfect kicking for the bonus points.

Mansfield was deprived of the service of both co-captains when injuries forced Magalski and Marra to leave early in the game.

COLLEGE ATHLETIC NEWS

(By K. F. VanNorman)

Of the early teams at Mansfield, the 1896 outfit was probably the best. They were coached by James Dunsmore, who formerly played at Mansfield and later at State College. They were undefeated during the season, winning their big game with the Athens A. C. by a score of 30 to 0. Athens at that time was a nationally known pro team, composed of ex-collegians.

The 1900 team coached by E. B. Beaumont were undefeated as was also the 1901 aggregation.

In 1906 another championship team was developed, winning from Lock Haven 35 to 0 and defeating Alfred University 16-0; also holding the Bucknell varsity to a 5 to 0 score, Bucknell scoring in the last five minutes of play. Mansfield twice crossed Bucknell's goal line, only to be called back.

The 1914 team defeated Indiana 21 to 0 and Alfred University 33 to 0.

The 1920 team under R. C. Kichline won 6 out of 9, defeating Scranton University, Rochester College and Cornell and Bucknell Frosh. The 1919 team under Coach E. C. Russell was very strong, losing only to Bloomsburg by 6 to 0 and to Cortland by a 13 to 12 score.

Paul J. Davis in 1931 won five out of six games on the schedule, but his team of 1936 was outstanding.

In 1938 under Coach Gene Martin, one of the best teams ever developed at Mansfield was put on the field, defeating every opponent, totaling 106 to rivals 2. Big games were only to Bloomsburg by a 6 to 0 and to East Stroudsburg 31 to 0, and Millersville 28 to 2. In closing, I wish to state that I believe the present varsity at the college to be the best all-around team ever to be turned out, as it has speed, experience, weight and a great come-back, as it has won three games in the second half, coming from behind.

COKE-BULARY

Have you ever walked into a favorite hangout of teen-agers and wondered if you had suddenly dropped into a foreign country? The teen-agers of today use so much slang that we are unable to understand them unless we know their "coke-bulary".

The other day, while sitting in a favorite shop of the younger set, I heard one of the football stars call across the room to a girl, "Clam up (stop talking) and C.O.D. (come over dear)." Then the girl had seated herself beside the geetchie (smooth) looking boy he said, "Let's get in the blitz-buggy (car) and go for a ride." When the girl looked at him rather questionly he said, "Gas it (get going in a hurry) if you want to go; I can't give the goo (explain in detail) now 'cause I'm feeling in the shade (feeling blue)."

Just as the girl started looking for her wing-ding (head-scarf), another boy stepped up and said to her, "You melt me (I like you)." The football hero thrust forth his chest and said meaningfully, "Make like a boid go away)." The other boy said, "If it's a honey-cooler (kiss) you're after, make sure she wipes off her pucker paint (lipstick)."

After the couple had left the shop, the gang had a jam session (session around the jukebox) which was soon interrupted by a junior wolf (kid brother) who informed his sister that she had to go home and do some crumb hunting (house work). When one of the fellows expressed disappointment at her having to leave she said, "I need a little cabbage (money) to dig a drape (buy a dress), dig me (understand me)."

After she had left, the general talk of her was gory (terrible). One boy declared, "She's a zoon bat (funny looking) and a fag hag (a girl that smokes)." Her faithful friend replied "Maybeso, but you must admit she has watch works (brains) and whistle bait (smooth looking clothes)."

At this point a boy who was referred to as a red mike (woman hater) sauntered up and said, "All the women I've seen need either a re-tread (new makeup) or an overhaul job (beauty treatment)." After this statement he called to waitress, "How about a slab (sandwich) and a glass of sky juice (water)."

When the red mike was just ready to thrust the slab into his bone-box (mouth) the door of the shop opened and in walked a lush number (smooth girl).

"Taxi up (come here) and collapse (sit down), called a handsome Joe (boy) from a booth. When he asked her if she'd like to go to the flicks (movies) she said, "You shred it, wheat." (You said it). As she stood to put on her jacket, something fell on the swoon stand (chair) and one of the fellows said, "Dropped your twister to the turner (door key)."

By the time I left the hang-out my head was in a whirl. I guess my wife thought I was a little nuts when I got home and asked her to C.O.D. collapse and give me a honey cooler.

—Thanks to Indiana Penn.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Hay-lo Kids—

The meeting opened and right on time, too—our President "Chick-Weed", is sure trying to keep everything right . . . of course, we had to wait for Anne Herzog to get the treasury report . . . Betsy and Harold had to be shushed, too, but what do you expect? . . . egg in your beer? Jeannie Jones, of course, wasn't there . . . She sure missed a hot discussion on the cooperation and principals of a hitherto popular organization on campus . . . I guess some people just don't have the good old school spirit . . . that's to bad, too, 'cause it sorta puts them out on a limb . . . Wellington got a chance to quit writing and talk for a change. . . His report on the conference held at Edinboro proved that he knew what is was all about and also what his adjective were for . . . President Weed also gave a dissertation on the "goings-on" at Edinboro . . . Charles, do you really expect us to believe that you don't know what is served in night clubs? Ruth Izer has the prettiest eyes . . .

Signed with puddles of pink passion,

Hi Gang—

Well—(another hole in the ground) the council met again and opened in the same old way . . . The president was in good voice and shouted in a faint whisper . . . "Will the meeting please come to order : . . ." At this everyone took their feet off the table and put them in their pockets where they belonged in the first place . . . Following this Count Basil took our pictures . . . Deans Wasley and Long were unable to be present because they were invited out to dinner (some people are just lucky). However, we carried on as best we could . . . Oh, yes—we also welcomed a new member to council—what was his name, now? I can't seem to think—you know, I have a good memory, but it's short—now what was his name? Oh, yes—that guy the Freshmen elected president of their class, Ott! Mary Ellen Russell was there to represent the "Flashlight"—that Jeannie Jones! Miss Reed was there to see that we did not pull anyone's hair out. Discussion was carried on to see whether or not to buy records for the record dances or to borrow records, pay for breakage or use the same money for having a real orchestra play. The meeting was then adjourned and everyone rushed out to meet their favorite date.

—"Jasper".
